

AMERICAN LEGION POST PLANS 4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

Free Barbecue and Free Entertainment Plans Under Way For Big Day Here

The Edwin Hardy Post of the American Legion are this year sponsoring a big celebration to be held in our city on the Fourth of July this year which promises to eclipse anything this section of the country has seen.

The tentative program includes a free barbecue for the public (not for ex-service men alone), a big carnival operated by the members of the post, various kinds of races and swimming stunts, a dance, and a real display of fireworks for the evening. The barbecue at noon and the fireworks display is entirely free, and there will be no admission to the carnival grounds. The prizes to be used in the carnival, as well as other prizes, except the cash awards for the races, will consist almost entirely of locally purchased merchandise.

The Chamber of Commerce is arranging for the cost of the fireworks display, the city has permitted the use of the City Park for the occasion, many of our public spirited citizens are giving animals for the barbecue, in fact, excellent cooperation is being met with on all sides.

With the continued support of the people, this affair promises to be one of the biggest of its kind ever staged in this section of the country.

According to the officers of the Post there will be as much as five thousand pounds of dressed meats, including beef, mutton, pork and goat on the barbecue pits the Friday before the fourth, which falls on Saturday this year, so one can readily see that the American Legion Post is determined that this will be an occasion that will be remembered for a long time and that since they are attempting this it will be put over in grand style as is usually the case when they get behind an endeavor.

'TARNISHED LADY' AT THE MILAM SUNDAY

TALLULAH BANKHEAD, LONDON'S FOOTLIGHT DARLING IN NEW ROLE

Eight years ago a little girl from Alabama played her first role on the Broadway stage. She was unknown to Broadway then—just as she, although a famous star with a nation at her feet, is unknown to American picture audiences today.

She is Tallulah Bankhead, who left her native United States to become London's favorite toast before a breath of popularity had touched her New York stage work; who has returned to the United States, after 8 years of adulation, to begin to win

"BELIEVE IT OR NOT"

On January 3, 1930 a torpedo balloon released in Alabama landed on a cattle range at San Gabriel, Texas, where 2000 steers were congregated, exploded and killed 160 head of them.

So says the cartoon 'Believe It Or Not.' This bit of doubtful information was printed in the press on Tuesday and has set many people to wondering if the cartoonist did not make a mistake about the flight of this balloon.

A few citizens of San Gabriel have volunteered the information that no such thing ever happened.

On Wednesday morning a telegram was received at the local Postal Telegraph office from Houston addressed to Cameron newspapers as follows:

'The Whittle and Cavanaugh No. 2 well on the J. B. Wathon farm in the Carathers survey came in at 11:40 last night making 37,500 barrels.'

On Wednesday the cartoon 'Strange As It May Seem' says ownership of an Encyclopedia Britannica in Texas is prohibited by law.

This is almost as sensational as Editor John E. Cook's one-eyed cat fish story printed in the Rockdale Reporter last week.

Anyway—'Believe It Or Not.'

84 RECEIVE DIPLOMAS IN GRADUATION FROM YOE HIGH

Largest Class From The Cameron School Graduates

In an address replete with the highest type of idealism which held the audience in rapt attention, Rev. John W. Darby outlined to the class of 1931 of the C. H. Yoe High school the essentials of a worthwhile life, upon the occasion of the high school graduation exercises last Monday evening. Stressing the importance of thought and intelligence and the value of honesty and persistence, Dr. Darby declared that persistent effort and the best of thought has been responsible for the progress of humanity throughout the ages.

After nine months of school work, the Cameron school term has come to an end. There were 84 happy boys and girls, capped and gowned in gray, who marched into the auditorium of Yoe high school Monday evening. Coming in on either side of the room in single file meeting at the rear of the building they marched up center aisle in pairs, again separating and were seated on either side facing the stage that was attractively decorated in the class colors, pink and green.

Supt. T. A. Fisher, with the speaker of the evening, Dr. John W. Darby of San Antonio, and trustees of the

MRS. MARY E. MARTIN IS BURIED HERE MAY 29

WIDOW OF PIONEER PHYSICIAN DIES IN CAMERON AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Mary E. Martin, 74, who died in Cameron on May 28, 1931, was buried here on Thursday May 28, 1931 at five o'clock in the afternoon. Death came to her after a prolonged illness at 6:45 o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Martin was born in Claiborne Parish, Louisiana on March 10, 1857 the daughter of pioneer Southern parents. She later became a resident of Texas, residing in Bell county where on February 5, 1884 she was married to Dr. Ed A. Martin, pioneer Texas physician who lived in Cameron for many years where he enjoyed a large practice.

After the death of Dr. Martin, 19 years ago in Cameron, she made her home with her son, Jones Martin in Austin until his death which occurred in 1929. She came to Cameron on July 12, 1929 and resided here until her death on May 28, 1931.

Together Dr. and Mrs. Martin came to Cameron to make their home. As the wife of the pioneer physician, Mrs. Martin lived through a stirring period of Texas history. She knew Cameron when this city was a village and from the pioneer people who lived here there sprang up lasting friendship and ties that endured thru the years and when she died on last Thursday it was a sad experience for those who knew and loved her. A true Southern woman she lived the grace and refinement of her day and generation leaving to those of her family who survive a priceless heritage of pioneer faith and character.

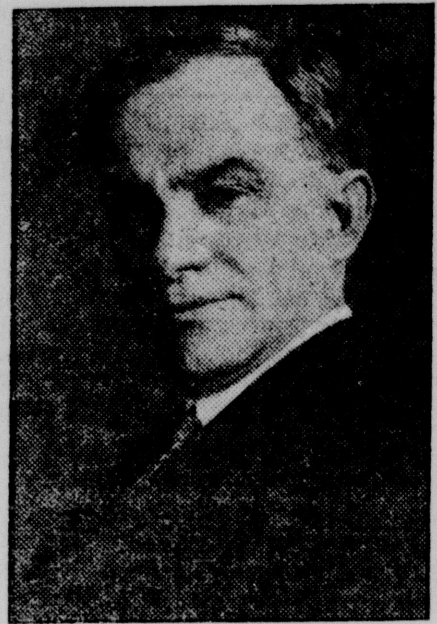

The body lay in the funeral home of the Coleman-Epler undertaking firm Thursday where many acquaintances of years came to pay their respects. Flowers in great profusion banked the steel gray casket and it was in the Methodist church in the late afternoon that final services were held with Rev. C. A. Lehmberg, pastor, paying a tribute to her.

Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery where she sleeps by the graves of her late husband and a son, Jones Martin, who died in 1929.

Mrs. Martin is survived by one sister, Mrs. Emma T. Hinde of San Angelo, and two step-sons, R. W. Martin of Waco and J. Alex Martin of Tulsa, Texas, besides a number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were H. M. Hefley, Jeff T. Kemp, W. A. Bonds, Roy Baskin, A. J. Triggs and R. H. McIntosh.

HEALTH COUNCIL MAKES REPORT ON HEALTH WORK

Results Obtained Are Pleasing To Those In Charge

As the Health Meet in Milam county during May was under the auspices of your Health Council we wish to report the work of the Itinerant Nurses loaned to us by the State Department of Health.

Miss Sue Nickerson, working in our school and in conferences with adults was gratified at the active interest of those she was privileged to address. She regretted that shortness of time prevented her arranging a series of health classes in any community and also made it impossible to hold baby clinics or to be of service as consultant for expectant mothers, these activities being part of the work of a full time health nurse.

A summary of her report to the County Superintendent and to the President of County Health Council show the following:

Visits to schools, 14.
Number children inspected, 771.
Number individual conferences, 31.
Number health talks given, 17.
Number public health talks given, 8.

30 per cent of children inspected were underweight, 67 per cent were found to have defects needing correction.

Let us look forward a few months, hoping that next fall, with all defects corrected and weights brought up to average, Milam county will have

MRS. MARTHA WOOLLEY DIES IN FORT BEND COUNTY

Born In 1841 Lived Through Stirring Period

Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Woolley, the death of Mrs. Martha Ann Woolley, Mr. Woolley's mother, occurred about 8 o'clock. In the death of this good woman Richmond and Fort Bend County lost an honored pioneer citizen. Mrs. Woolley was born in Washington county, March 5, 1841, making her ninety years old in March of this year. For the past two or three years Mrs. Woolley has been in very feeble health, being confined to her room and bed most of the time for the last fifteen months.

Mrs. Woolley was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boswell, who came to Texas in 1836 from Virginia, landing at Galveston, from there they brought their meagre household effects to Old Washington, by way of pack saddle. The Boswells walked the entire distance. Mrs. Woolley was born in a period of Texas history

Lumber Journal Commends Jeter Business Policy

ROYAL P. JETER

The American Lumberman, the world's largest journal for the lumber trade, publishes in the current issue an interesting comment on the business career of Royal P. Jeter of the Jeter Lumber Company of Cameron.

Mr. Jeter is second vice president of the Lumberman's Association of Texas and also of the Texas Line Yard Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

The occasion for this comment by the Journal was the recent celebration of the 38th birthday of the Jeter Lumber Company. The story follows:

Getting out of the rut and doing things a little different way is almost always good business, especially when it comes to getting the attention of the public. Therefore, it may be said to have been a happy thought on the part of Royal P. Jeter that resulted in the Jeter Lumber Company, when sending out a 'Birthday Anniversary Letter' to friends and customers recently, to have it printed, not on paper but on cotton cloth, so treated as to give it a smooth linen-like finish.

The surface of this cotton cloth takes printing and typewriting almost as well as ordinary paper, while the novelty of this use of cotton attracted widespread attention and brought much favorable comment to Mr. Jeter from far and near. A postscript to the letter says: 'Did you notice that this letter is printed on cotton? A new use for something we are all interested in.'

The occasion of the letter was to mark the thirty-eighth anniversary of the company and to extend cordial greetings to its many customers and friends. The firm's slogan for this year is, 'Thirty-eight years doing one thing right.' Mr. Jeter told in a jocular way of a 'hot shot' from another dealer in the territory, whose reaction to this slogan was, 'If it takes 'em thirty-eight years to do one thing why don't they go into some other business?' This, of course was said jokingly, as everyone who knows anything about the operation of the Jeter Lumber Company is well acquainted with.

DR. STERLING FISHER TALKS TO GRADUATES

BROWNSVILLE MINISTER DELIVERS BACCALAUREATE SERMON SUNDAY

Before an audience that filled the auditorium of the First Methodist church to capacity, Dr. Sterling Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist church, Brownsville, Texas, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to the high school seniors last Sunday evening. Taking as his text 'Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God,' the speaker stressed three attitudes that are necessary to the development of the spiritual life of man. These three great tests of life, he declared, are the search after truth in whatever realm it may be found, the hunger for righteousness and the good life, and the quest for beauty in its varied aspects. Rev. Joel B. Hardigree, Rev. O. C. Acree and Rev. C. A. Lehmberg assisted with the program. The junior class had charge of the arrangements and furnished the music for the occasion.

"One-Eyed Catfish" Caught At Rockdale

A one-eyed catfish was being shown about town last Thursday by Bob Curlee and Ernest Coffield. The fish weighed two and one-quarter pounds, and was of the channel cat variety. It was caught with other fish out of the San Gabriel river Wednesday night.

The left eye of the specimen was apparently larger than would appear natural, and the place where the right eye should have been was quite smooth and showed no evidence that the fish had ever possessed two eyes.

The right whisker was also missing. The left whisker was about four inches in length.—Rockdale Reporter.

Embassy Captive Saved by Message in Bread

It was hardly surprising to find that the Soviet ambassador to France issued a prompt denial of the story that three of his fellow countrymen were being held captive in the Russian embassy, but something of this kind really did happen in London once, writes a columnist in the Manchester Guardian. Lord Alverstone tells about it in his "Reminiscences." In the news at the back of the Chinese embassy in Portland place, a piece of bread was picked up, appropriately enough, by a baker, and inside it was a note addressed to a certain Chinese resident in London. The note stated that the writer had been about to pass the embassy in the company of two of his fellow countrymen when he had been hustled inside, and that he was now a prisoner in an attic in the building and feared that something worse was going to befall him.

The foreign office was not at all pleased to be confronted with such a delicate situation, but the attorney general was quite positive that diplomatic privileges did not include liberty to incarcerate anybody in an embassy, and an intimation to that effect being gently conveyed to the ambassador, the prisoner was released. There is room for speculation how far the course of history might have been altered if that bit of bread with its message had not been picked up, for the writer of it was the Sun Yat Sen who a dozen years later became first president of the Chinese republic.

Remarkable Low Note on Australian Organ

On the great organ in Sydney town hall, Australia, is a pedal stop of 64 feet. The pipe actually of that length, the lowest C, does not stand upright, but is bent in several places, so that it may be accommodated in the interior of the instrument. The note this giant pipe emits—the stop is a reed stop, a "contra-positone"—is fearsome. It is more like a cavernous growl than a musical note, and one of the little jokes of the tuner when he is showing visitors through the great array of pipes in this organ is to have the famous 64-foot pedal pipe sounded when the visitor is alongside it and not expecting the shock. It is an unfailing surprise. The vibrations of this low C can almost be counted—in which regard, no doubt, the note resembles that of the basso-profundo whose boast it was that he had always to begin to sing his lowest note 32 beats before it was needed, since it took so long to become audible to the listener.

Miss Edith Sparra, teacher of Belton, former teacher of Cameron visited friends in Cameron Sunday. She was accompanied by her nephew, Lee Sparra who will be remembered by many friends here.

Odd New Zealand Bird, Kiwi, Nears Extinction

The strangest bird in the world—the kiwi-kiwi, is described as follows in Boys' Life, the Boy Scout publication.

"Native of New Zealand, he nearly makes fact of ancient fable—current when the continent was first discovered—that everything around Australia was upside down. The kiwi is practically wingless and completely flightless. He has no visible tail. His brownish plumage, moreover, because the feather-filaments are disunited, looks more like coarse hair. His nostrils, unlike any other bird's, are at the very tip of the long beak, that is flexible and very sensitive to touch.

"The kiwi grows like a dog, and snaps his bill as you crack your fingers; he can hiss like a cat when angry. His extraordinarily powerful legs can give mighty kicks, not backward but forward, and have been known to break a bone in a man's hand. In small flocks, the few kiwis left of a disappearing species inhabit New Zealand's hilly forests. Females burrow long tunnels, laying in a nest at the very end of it two large eggs—eggs a quarter the length of the whole bird. Incubating is entirely the job of the male.

"Maoris are very fond of kiwi flesh broiled or roasted, so fond that the bird was well hunted out before ever a white man saw one. Now the peculiar bird, distant relative of ostrich, emu, cassowary, and survivor of a species that flourished with the extinct, gigantic dinosaurs and fierce, sluggish moas, millions of years ago, is fast approaching extinction."

Marriage Promise Just Incident of Vacation?

A New Yorker, lifted out of his habitual caution by the balmy atmosphere of Florida during a winter vacation, brought suit against a girl he met down there, to recover a ring. The young lady contested the suit.

When it came up in court, the young man said that they had enjoyed a fond good-bye on the beach, but later, when both had returned to New York, the girl had passed him up cold. The girl herself admitted it, saying:

"I really didn't know whether I should recognize him or not. Our acquaintance in Florida was really very slight."

"But," expostulated the court, glancing at the sparkling ring, "you promised to marry him, didn't you?"

"Why, yes," admitted the girl, "but that was all."—Los Angeles Times.

Europe's "Holy Alliance"

The Holy Alliance was the name of a league formed by Russia, Austria and Prussia after the fall of Napoleon in 1815 for the purpose of regulating the affairs of Europe "by the principles of Christian charity," says an article in Pathfinder Magazine. Notwithstanding its professed purpose the real policy of the Holy Alliance was to make every endeavor possible to stabilize existing dynasties and to resist all change. The league endured until 1830 and was in time joined by all the important and European monarchs except those of England and Turkey. The Monroe Doctrine was enunciated largely to warn the Holy Alliance not to interfere with the newly established republics in Latin America.

Biblical Flowers

There are comparatively few flowers named in the Bible. It is reported that as a whole the Syrian people were not particularly fond of flowers. Among those named are the myrtle, Isaiah, 4:13; Rose of Sharon, Isaiah, 35:1; Song of Solomon, 2:1; Lily, I Kings, 7:20; Son of Solomon, 2:13, 6:23; Matthew, 6. Flax is found in Exodus, Genesis, Leviticus, Esther, Judges, Proverbs and Kings. Burning bush (or acacia) is mentioned in Exodus, 3:4. The lily is an Arabic general term and applies to the tulip, ranunculus, narcissus, iris, water lily, and particularly the anemones which carpet the ground during the summer season throughout Palestine.

Treasure Trove on Farm

On the land of a widow farmer of Aarhus (Denmark) 6,000 copper and silver coins of the days of Eric Gipping (1250-1286), king of Denmark, were found. It was in the reign of this king that the first rigsdag, or general assembly, became an established legislature in Denmark. The coins, as treasure trove, were by law the property of the state, but the widow received a sum of money in exchange.

Only Daddy

Firemen Defeat Yarrellton Team

With the Firemen hitting the ball at a .375 rate Saturday afternoon the local lads defeated Yarrellton 8 to 2.

Worcester was in rare good form and let the visitors down with five hits, three of which were obtained by third baseman Mullinax, who had a perfect day at bat with three hits in three times up.

Yarrellton was unprepared to put their full strength into their lineup as several of their players failed to show up and as a consequence Vaughn Jenness was drafted by them as a catcher and in the first of the eighth Heinie Walker went to left field to bolster up their lineup.

Neither of them however were able to fathom the curves of Williams as neither of them got a hit.

Worcester by way got three hits in four times up which, so far, gives Williams a hitting average of .714.

R. P. Jeter

er Lumber Company knows that whatever it tackles, it does right.

Royal P. Jeter is widely known throughout the southwestern trade territory. At the latest convention of the Lumberman's Association of Texas and the Texas Lumber Retail Lumber Dealers Association, held at San Antonio in April, he was made second vice president of both organizations.

'Our company is just another retail lumber concern, trying to keep up with or a little ahead of rapidly changing merchandising methods,' said Mr. Jeter with commendable modesty. 'Right at this time we are urging our friends to do their building now, while materials are down and labor is plentiful, and we believe we have uncovered some nice business for ourselves and other dealers in our territory by doing this—business that would have slept on if we had not stirred it up in this way.'

'We are trying to make our stores places of service to the builders by helping them to plan and develop their building needs and to finance their building programs, which of course is nothing more than many other retail dealers are doing.'

'We have always tried, too, to play fair with other dealers, with our customers and with our sources of supply.'

Mr. Jeter expressed his appreciation of the American Lumberman, which he reads regularly and with profit and enjoyment.

school occupied the rostrum.

The class of 1931 is outstanding in several ways, mainly, that there were ties in grades for both the salutatory and valedictory and all were girls, showing that there had been application and close study during the school term.

Class president, Charles Beacham, very cleverly introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dr. Darby. He gave a splendid address, holding his audience spell bound; stressing opportunity of life now. That with persistency in this wonderful age of possibilities and achievements, man was unlimited and that he could achieve his goal regardless. He congratulated the class in the distinction of two salutatorians and two valedictorians.

It is highly probable that each of the honor graduates will receive a scholarship as they are to be awarded later on.

At the close of the exercises the class gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gaither to be the guests of their daughter, Miss Billie Gaither, a member of the class. This was a delightful lawn party and was enjoyed by class and a few close friends.

The salutatory was delivered jointly by Misses Anna Graham and Mary Louise Graves, the two young ladies who tied for second honors in the class, while the valedictory was delivered by Misses Marjorie Dusek and Allene Owen, who shared first honors. Misses Arnette Ryan and Billie Gaither gave piano numbers and the Blue Bird Choral Club sang the 'Song of the Volga Boatmen.' Mr. Charles Beacham, president of the class introduced the speaker of the evening. Scholarship awards were announced by Supt. T. A. Fisher. Rev. Joel B. Hardigree and Rev. J. P. Love assisted with the program. O. L. Kidd, president of the school board, delivered diplomas to the graduates.

Madie and John Watson are visiting in the Gurley home in Waco this week. Mrs. Gurley formerly was Miss Nell Sue Whitman and lived in Cameron.

the acclaim of her fellow countrymen in the moving pictures.

In 'Tarnished Lady,' the brilliant Donald Ogden Stewart drama, which the Milam Theatre will feature Sunday and Monday, Tallulah Bankhead, co-starred with Clive Brook, the suave English screen favorite, makes her bow to the moving picture public. Her husky voice, her vibrant personality, her large, languid eyes will make their bid for favor in this picture, in an effort to conquer a greater world of acclaim than even her brilliant London stage success brought her.

Here is an actress of assured charm, quick-witted and sophisticated able to handle a quip with lightning rapidity. In Miss Bankhead, Paramount raises the curtain on a new star, a great actress, on a new personality that will be immediately and warmly welcomed to the hearts of all theatre goers.

The story of 'Tarnished Lady' is a story of society's '400,' where money vies with love for marriage riches. Miss Bankhead marries Brook for his money, denying her love for a struggling young writer. When, after 3 months of marriage, she finds herself incapable of continuing her role of wife, she leaves her husband and attempts to recapture the love she flaunted. She is too late, but, in her trials, finds in the security of her husband's affection the love she thought lost forever.

A cast of Broadway stage favorites and a group of socially elite women carry the supporting parts in this drama, written by one of America's foremost dramatists and humorists, directed by George Cukor, maker of 'Royal Family of Broadway.' 'Tarnished Lady' is a smart sophisticated drama of the upper world, well suited to display all the flash of the combined Bankhead-Brook talents.

when it required the sternest character to survive the hardships of a wild western, undeveloped country. Her environment gave to those sturdy traits of character that developed for Texas a type of heroic mother that has been and always will be the pride and honor of the American nation. They faced hardships, welcomed the opportunity for fighting the hardest battles of pioneer homes, the results of which formed a foundation for the building of our present superstructure of this great commonwealth of Texas. To these heroic spirits Texas owes a debt of gratitude which can never be paid by the erection of monuments or the publishing of biographies, euphoric phrases or beautiful platitudes. The best monument that the present generation can erect to these noble spirits is to emulate their virtues of honor, industry and integrity, faithfulness to the high ideals of our life and government. Mrs. Woolley was quiet, unassuming in her nature. However, those who knew her best honored and respected her most, for in her were found all of those heavenly born traits and spirits that go to make up the word, 'Mother.'

She was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon in Needville Cemetery by the side of her husband, another pioneer heroic spirit, honored loved and respected by this county, sleeps in the dust of the historic Ford Bend county. Her impress and imprint upon the world has been indelibly made never to be lost. However much she may be honored and missed by those who knew her, the value of her life and character can and will be rewarded by Him who directed her in life, sustained her in misfortune and claimed her in death. He who had her destiny while living now has complete dominion over her immortal soul. Tears and flowers are the emblems of her leaving earth, but words of welcome, songs of praise and the applaudit of 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant,' have greeted her at the threshold of her Eternal home. Old and bent and broked of form in this world, racked with pain, she has laid these all aside, and has taken on the form that fits this good Christian mother for her eternal abode in the mansion prepared by her Heavenly Father. Mrs. Woolley is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. R. Vernon, Fort Worth, Texas; four sons, V. P. Woolley of Cameron; M. L. Woolley of Richmond; J. E. Woolley of Needville and F. W. Woolley of San Antonio and Mrs. L. L. Miers, O'Donnell; thirty-eight living grand children and seventy-five great grandchildren and three great, great grandchildren.

PRE-SCHOOL ROUND UP

The Cameron Parent Teacher Association through the Health Committee chairman, Mrs. W. R. Newton, held the second annual pre-school roundup on Monday afternoon, May 23.

Drs. W. R. Newton, A. S. Epperson, James Watson and A. E. Kruse gave the general and dental health examinations, and were assisted by Miss Sue Nickerson, state nurse, and the Misses Good and Sharpe, local graduate nurses and by several mothers.

There were 30 children examined of whom 5 were found to be 100 per cent, or having no defects to be corrected and having a normal weight. The health committee hopes all defects reported will be corrected before the opening of school in the fall, that our children may begin their school work in healthy condition.

METHODIST CHURCH PACKED
FOR ANNUAL SCHOOL
PROGRAM

The eighty-four graduates of Yoe High School, wearing gray caps and gowns, were greeted by a crowded house Sunday evening when they arrived at the First Methodist church when Dr. Sterling Fisher, pastor of First Methodist church, Brownsville, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon. This was one of the largest classes to graduate in the history of the school and was largely attended by patrons, relatives and friends of the class. A number to receive diplomas this year are from out of town.

Dr. Fisher was introduced by Supt. T. A. Fisher, a brother of the speaker, in a very delightful manner. Dr. Fisher delivered a masterly discourse stressing the high points of life; the glory in knowing life and the glory of living this life, and going to schools and scenes of higher learning in this age of flaming youth.

As has been the custom for a number of years, the graduates gathered at the home of Judge and Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp where they registered in a pretty commencement book and were served fruit punch made from fruits grown by the host and hostess, and marched in a body to the church, where Junior girls acted as ushers, dressed in aly spring evening dresses.

The following program was rendered:

Processional, Miss Lucille Dickard, Hymn—Come Thou Almighty King by congregation.

Invocation, Rev. Joel B. Hardigree. Scripture reading, Rev. C. A. Lehmborg.

The Lord is My Shepherd, Junior class. Baccalaureate Address, Rev. Sterling Fisher.

Two District Judges On Bench At Same Time In Marlin

Some kind of record was hung up at the Falls County court house on Thursday of last week when Judge E. M. Dodson heard argument in a divorce case, evidence of which was given Wednesday in district court, in the County court rooms downstairs, while upstairs Judge Watson was presiding in cases on call on the criminal docket.

It happened like this: Judge Dodson had arranged to come to Cameron to preside in a case in which Judge Watson was recused. However, the divorce trial started Wednesday before Judge Dodson which was not completed during the day and when Judge Watson arrived in Marlin on Thursday morning to preside for the Falls county judge, the latter moved the case he was hearing down stairs while Judge Watson proceeded with the criminal docket in district court.

Real Mayor of Regal City Has Cracked Rib From Auto Accident

Mayor E. A. Camp is nursing a cracked rib this week as the result of an automobile accident in which he turned his Ford coupe over on the Rockdale Cameron highway last Monday morning. The accident occurred at the double curve near the home of Hood Caldwell, four miles from town. The car was left standing bottom-side up and was damaged to the extent of about $100.

Following the accident Mr. Camp caught a ride into Cameron and went immediately into the trial of a case in district court. At the noon hour he went out to the hospital where the x-ray showed a cracked rib as his most serious injury.

A strange young man whom Camp had picked up for a ride to Cameron was uninjured.—Rockdale Reporter.

Mr. Car Owner

Here is what Race Drivers with Life and Victory at Stake have decided about Tires

FOR twenty-one years the Indianapolis two and a half mile circular brick track, surrounded by a concrete wall to keep the cars from dashing off, has been the crucible where at white heat automobiles and tires have been tested. Thousands of men have risked, and some have sacrificed, their lives, and manufacturers have spent millions of dollars to the end of making better automobiles and better tires.

Louis Schneider and mechanician on Saturday won this race in a heavy 8 cylinder car. He made an average speed of 96.629 miles per hour—on the straightaways and in passing cars he touched 140 miles and better. He drove on 6.00-20 Firestone High Speed Tires with racing treads. He had no tire trouble.

He used Firestone Tires because Firestone experts and engineers have through twenty-one years taken this race as a challenge to tire making. From this race they have developed these vital improvements which have given to Firestone Tires the world leadership in safety, mileage and endurance.

1. Gum-Dipping. Tires had to be stronger and able to stand the heat of a hot red-brick track at high speed. Firestone met this by developing and perfecting the dipping of cords through a rubber solution to insulate each fiber of every cord to overcome heat and give the cord greater strength—and 58% greater flexibility. This is the Patented Gum-Dipping Process used in the making of every Firestone Tire.

2. The Balloon Tire was developed by Firestone to permit greater speed with comfort and safety by increasing road grip and absorbing shocks. It was made possible by the added strength and flexibility given by Gum-Dipping. In the 1925 race, some of the drivers tried the then new Firestone Balloons. The others stuck to high-pressure tires. Peter de Paolo on Firestone Balloons made a world's record. All the prize winners came in on Firestone Balloons—Now the balloon tire is everywhere the standard.

3. Double Cord Breaker. The higher-powered cars and the step-up in speed demanded still more tire toughness. At one hundred miles an hour, the circumference of a tire increases by more than 10%, and this, added to the centrifugal force, tends to throw off the tire treads. Firestone met this by developing the Patented Double Cord Breaker which gives a 56% stronger bond between the tread and the tire body and also gives a 26% greater protection against punctures and blowouts.

These are some of the great lessons that Firestone has learned on this racing track. And so the men whose lives and fortunes depend on knowing tires always buy Firestone Patented Gum-Dipped Double Cord Breaker High-Speed Tires.

There were 72 entries. Of these, 40 survived the elimination trials—and every one of them was on Firestone Tires. And every tire was bought and paid for.

We give you the benefit of all the lessons Firestone has learned from these races. You can get from us all the strength and safety in tires that the racing drivers buy.

Take advantage of our liberal trade-in plan. Avoid the risk of blowout, accident or delay. Prices on these World's Record Tires are the lowest in history.

Come in Today.

Firemen Take Double Header

Sunday afternoon the double header between Cameron and Little River turned out to be a huge batting bee for the Firemen as they won the first game 17 to 2. Then won the second game 11 to 4. The Little River managers had come out in a statement appearing in Friday mornings issue of the Temple Telegram stating that the Firemen would suffer a considerable slump in their batting averages. Just the reverse was true as the Firemen obtained 16 hits in the four innings of the first game and 11 hits in the second game, which went seven innings. It was apparent from the outset that the Cameron Firemen would have no difficulty in winning, and the local boys proceeded to fatten their averages. Unk Young was never in danger and with the Firemen playing errorless ball behind him it would have taken a Texas League team to stop Cameron. Adams started pitching for the visitors but was relieved by Fincher with one out in the third inning. Williams and McDonald had perfect batting averages in the first game, McDonald getting two three-baggers and two home runs, while Williams got a three-bagger, two singles and a walk. In the second game Luksa was pitted against Baird. Luksa fanned nine opponents and walked none. Baird fanned three and walked four. In this second game the Firemen made four errors while the visitors made two. In the two Sunday games the Firemen hit the ball for an average of .457.

CAMERON BOY SELECTED FOR NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Sidney Herndon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Herndon, has just been notified of his selection for membership in the League of Curtis Salesmen, an honor organization maintained by the Curtis Publishing Co., for boys who sell its publications. Admittance to this organization depends upon regular school attendance and a record of efficient service to customers. Through this training, teachers very generally report that boys gain a sense of responsibility that tends to make schooling more real to them. As Sidney's friends know he is developing a sense of self-confidence and an ability to make decisions very quickly. That is one reason he is proud to show his badge of membership to his friends and is now looking forward to advancement to the next higher degree in the organization.

Miss Katie Blanch Masters, who taught Spanish in Yoe high school this year left Friday afternoon for a visit in Dallas and will attend the activities of Southern Methodist University while there. She will return later to her home in Lott. Miss Masters has been elected to teach here this fall.

ed in Burlington a nice building into which he will move the drug store and post office and the doctors offices. The building will add to the looks of the town.

Mrs. George Logan has returned from Pike county, Arkansas, where she visited relatives. She reports crops good with the exception of some cut worms working in them. Pike county was one of the hardest hit drouth sections but conditions are improved some as gardens are good and fish plentiful. There is talk of the large saw mills shutting down for a while and of course that will put some folks out of work.

It Is Much Cheaper To Build Now! Why?

Because commodity prices are at a low ebb. Because building costs are the lowest in many years and because they will not always remain as low. They will rise again.

Conditions may not be all we would like but one thing you must take into consideration. Now is the time to begin taking advantage. The money you will save on your building program now will mean much to you in time. It will increase the value of your home just that much and while you have been accustomed of late to put off your home building, please bear in mind it does not take as much money now. Fact is money goes much further and about equalizes values with the old days.

If it is lumber you want we have it. If it is Paint we have it and hundreds of things you need like glass, screen wire and builders hardware. Your dollar hasn't bought as much since 1914.

TWO ARRESTED AFTER
CRASH ON HIGHWAYSAN MARCOS DOCTOR TREATED
FOR SHOCK AFTER ACCIDENT

Dr. S. B. Slaughter Jr., of San Marcos, was brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Orr in Rockdale shortly after midnight Saturday, suffering from shock, following an automobile crash on the highway two miles the other side of Milano.

Dr. Slaughter, accompanied by his nine year old son, was enroute to Madisonville in East Texas, when his car, a Dodge coupe, crashed with a Chevrolet coupe driven by three men, who, following the crash, disappeared in the darkness. A small amount of liquor, it is said, was found in the Chevrolet, which bore a Milam county number, and Sheriff Blaylock started an investigation Sunday morning. Slaughter was brought to Rockdale by two young men from San Antonio, who were first on the scene after the crash. The injured man was suffering severely from shock and was given attention by Dr. I. P. Sessions, and provided with a nurse until Sunday afternoon, when relatives from Madisonville arrived and conveyed him to his home at San Marcos. The Slaughter boy was uninjured. Both cars were badly damaged.

The two San Antonio men spent the night here and gave such evidence as they had to Sheriff Blaylock. They stated that they were driving toward Milano when the Chevrolet coupe passed them at a high speed, its occupants yelling and the car careening from side to side of the road. The Chevrolet disappeared over a slight hill and they heard the crash as it struck the San Marcos car. When they arrived on the scene the three occupants of the Chevrolet made a hasty get-away on foot, the boys stated.

Monday Sheriff Blaylock arrested John Meadows and Bryant Bullock of Milano. They were charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated and in an examining trial held Tuesday they were bound over to await the action of the grand jury, under bond of $400 each.—Rockdale Reporter.

SUNNY SIDE

In Friday's issue of the Temple Telegram was a statement by the Little River scorer to the effect that I either didn't know a base hit or I was showing partiality toward the Cameron Firemen. Sunday afternoon he went home thoroughly convinced that the Cameron Firemen were the hardest hitting amateur ball club he had ever seen.

McDonald obtained seven hits in 8 trips to the bat which is a mere .875 batting average, while Doug Williams was a close second with 5 hits in six times up for a .833 average.

Cameron has never boasted of such a hitting club, but a look at the fielding averages would give you the impression they are about the 'pukiest' fielding club to be found anywhere. Cameron is prone to play in and out baseball. They are matched with some small town with a supposedly weak team and go into the game with the expectation of it being a 'gift' game but are awakened after the last man is out to find they have lost the game.

Cameron continues to maintain their position in the upper bracket in the cup races. We are anxious to take on the leaders and are trying to get the Temple Cowboys here for next Sunday with possibly Holland for Saturday. Both of these teams are ahead of us in the percentage column but they have not played the number of games we have. While the Firemen are setting the prairies on fire with their hitting as they are now, now is the time to pick the toughest opposition we can find. For this reason we can assure the fans some clayey games in the future.

The games which are positively scheduled will be found in another column of this issue.

In Saturday's game with Yarrelton Doug Williams led the hitters by getting a two bagger and two singles in five times up. Mullinax, third baseman for Yarrelton got three hits in three times up. Vogelsang and McDonald and Keith got a hit in three times up.

Tex Miller roamed far and wide in center field and made three put outs.

Yarrelton came on the field some thirty minutes late and as their catcher was missing Vaughn Jenness was drafted to catch on the Yarrelton side.

Worcester was scored on in only the seventh inning when two hits, and a base on balls put over the only two scores they made.

In Sunday's games the Firemen showed to good advantage. In the first game the first man up, Doug Williams, got a three base hit. Keith followed with a double. Then McDonald got a home run. Frob there on out the Firemen dealt the pitchers plenty of misery. McDonald got seven hits in eight times up while Williams got five hits in six times up. The Firemen failed to accord Luksa the errorless support they have given Unk Young in the first game, but Luksa kept the game well in hand. When McDonald got two home runs and Vogelsang got one in the first game it established a record for home runs in the Cameron park, at least for several back.

In the Telegram race this makes 81

games won and three lost for a percentage of .727. About the largest crowd of the season witnessed Sunday afternoons games.

Yoe High School
Friday for Scouts

A Court of Honor to include Rockdale, Sharpe, Rosebud and Cameron is planned for Friday night, June 5 at the Yoe High School, according to W. G. Gillis, local Court of Honor Chairman.

A very interesting feature, especially interesting to the Cameron Scouts, is the Court of Honor plaque to be presented by the Texas Power and Light Company for the troop having the largest attendance of adults. Tickets are being scattered over town by the troops, each trying to outdo the other. There is no charge for attending the Court of Honor, the tickets being a way of checking up on attendance. You are cordially invited to attend, thereby lending your influence in the work being done by these boys.

The local Scoutmasters of Cameron, J. A. Liddle, John W. Haygood and B. L. Archer will each have Scouts to present at this ceremony for Scout awards.

CAMERON SOCIAL CALENDAR OF 1860 AFFORDED DELIGHTFUL PROGRAMS; "TURNHAM'S SPRING" PICNIC JULY 10

One of the oldest social affairs given in Cameron bears the date of July 10, 1860, was a 'pic-nic excursion' given at the then popular resort known as 'Turnham's Spring.'

Yellow with age and on a pressed embossed invitation paper of rare design, the following invitation was mailed to the social set of that day.

'The pleasure of your company is respectfully solicited to a Pic-nic excursion at Turnham's Spring, on Thursday next, and in the evening of the same day a party, at the Court House. Managers: W. D. King, Wm H. Tarver, Lee Scott, J. C. Rogers, R. Stennet, John Lampkin, W. D. Jackson, R. S. Wiley, Cameron, Texas, July 10, 1860.'

This antique is in possession of Mrs. Hallie Jones Wofford and was an invitation to Miss Applewhite Hazmon, a reigning beauty of the 1860 period who afterward married Dr. D. C. Jones and made their home in Waco for a number of years, and were parents of Mrs. Wofford.

W. D. Jackson later married a Miss Batte and moved to Waco where he for a number of years was a leading photographer. R. S. Wiley lived here and was a practicing physician, and a son of his, Robert S. Wiley, is living here and was for a number of years Tax Assessor of Milam County.

In the early days the town was known for its hospitality and is now known as 'Cameron, the Friendly City.'

Louis Schneider Wins 500 Mile Race

Louis Schneider, Indianapolis youth, with his mechanic, Jigger Johnson, just before and just after he rode to fame and a $20,000 pot of gold in the 500-mile Speedway Classic May 30.

No man has ever won two years consecutively, but Schneider is the twelfth consecutive winner on Firestone Tires, and to express his gratitude for his safety and victory he sent Harvey S. Firestone the following telegram from the track:

"I have just won the five hundred mile Indianapolis race on Six Hundred Twenty Firestone Gum Dipped Tires. It was a most difficult and gruelling test for tires due to a wet, slippery track from frequent showers. Safety at high speed was of greatest importance and my Firestone Tires enabled me to make an average speed of 96.629 miles per hour. I have always used Firestone Tires in all my racing, for I have great confidence in their safety and dependability and I want to thank you for the part Firestone Balloons played in my victory today, for I had no tire failures and changed but one tire, purely a precautionary measure, and all my tires were in fine condition at the finish of the race."

termingled with greenery presented an attractive combination in baskets, vases and containers, placed on the lawn giving added beauty to the already pretty scene.

Mesdames Oxsheer Smith and Giles Avriett tied in high score and low fell to Mrs. R. P. Jeter, all receiving pretty gift shop articles.

The hostess regaled her guests with a frozen salad course with ice tea served on handsome bamboo trays, centered with miniature corsages of pink sweet peas, given as plate favors.

MRS. CLAUDE TRIGGS WITH BRIDGE CLUB

An artistic arrangement of pink roses, larkspur and ferns lent floral charm to the home of Mrs. Claude Triggs Friday afternoon when she entertained her bridge club. The same attractive color theme was noted in all appointments.

Three tables were arranged for an interesting series of games. At the conclusion awards went to Miss Catherine Flinn for highest score, a bridge set; second highest was captured by Mrs. Stanton Dossett, bath salts. During the games ginger ale was served and at the conclusion the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Stanton Dossett served an ice course.

Guests other than club members were Misses Helen and Catherine Flinn.

Old Receipt Cameron Sentinel Subscription

J. Alex Martin of Tulsa brought to The Herald office this week an old receipt issued to his father, Dr. Ed A. Martin and signed by J. A. Moore for a subscription paid to the Cameron Sentinel on April 15, 1861.

The Sentinel was Cameron's pioneer newspaper. The Herald would like to have information from older residents here as to whether The Herald was a continuation of that publication or a separate newspaper. As carried now The Herald was established in 1878. It is possible that the old Sentinel was discontinued and The Herald named in its place. In that event this newspaper would be 70 years old. Any information will be appreciated.

groups of happy, because healthy, 100 per cent children.

We trust that all of you who are interested, understand that of Health Meet coming so late in the school year, made it impossible to do more than touch the big job of school visiting, and we can only be thankful that we have had this sample of what health work should be.

The County Health Council following the plan of the state department of Health, ministers to all the people irrespective of race, color, creed and works for better health for all thru better health instruction for all.

The splendid work done for our negro population is here outlined:

The Milam County Health program which was conducted by Miss Adaline Robinson of the State Department of Health was concluded at Baileyville on Friday, May 5.

During this month's work 17 schools were visited, 29 adult and 15 boys conferences were held. One junior health class totaling 40 girls and one adult health class totaling 29 was conducted, a total of 52 certificates issued by the Department of Health were given to the finishing members of these two classes. Eight home visits were made.

A total of 1010 school and 275 preschool children were inspected, finding 260 of them underweight and 3205 with major defects. 1175 adults attended the various meetings and conferences. Making a total of 2562 juniors and adults at all meetings.

boys and girls gave major assistance in accomplishing the foregoing results. Miss M. E. B. Miller, Jeans supervisor; B. R. Williams, R. N., wife of County Agent J. H. Williams, assisted in every meeting during the campaign.

No doubt the success of this campaign would have been impossible had it not been for the leadership and wonderful cooperation of J. H. Williams, Negro County Agricultural Agent who directed this campaign from the beginning. Large attendance at these various meetings was due to the publicity he gave to the work and the confidence of rural people have in him as a result of his untiring progressive work among them.

We think this month's work has been far reaching enough to start the change toward better living conditions among negroes in this county.

By successive steps, he was promoted to field superintendent, chief engineer, and Western Division Manager, with offices in El Paso. The day following his mustering out of the National Guard Service, the United States declared war on Germany and Mr. Bowen enlisted immediately, leaving within a few months for France where he served almost two years in active service during the World War.

In 1919, he returned to the States and was married in August of that year to Miss Bertha Booth of Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen made their home in San Antonio where Mr. Bowen engaged in real estate work for several months before joining the forces of A. P. Barrett who was then organizing several small companies which were to become the nucleus of the Texas-Louisiana Power Company. Mrs. Bowen was also associated with the company in its early days.

Both homes are brick veneer and will be very attractive in design and appointment when completed. They are being built in the same block and will add much to the real estate values in that section of Cameron.

ADDITIONAL MAIL ROUTE WILL BE GIVEN CAMERON

Co-Operation Needed In House Numbering Job Here

Co-operation is necessary for the Commercial Club Committee charged with the work of getting numbers on Cameron houses.

It was reported to the club Monday night by Chairman August Honstmann that some misunderstanding has resulted and in some instances improper cooperation is the experience of the workers.

Owners of tenant houses should pay the small fee necessary and thus help the work along and others should cooperate.

It means that another mail route will be added to the free delivery service for the city and it means the employment of another man who can support a family and will bring this additional amount to the Cameron's annual pay roll.

Rodent extermination was discussed by Mr. Banzhaf who has had an offer from A. & M. Extension Department to send a man here on request of ten merchants.

Difficulty is being had with the right of way for Highway 44. President Avriett of the club said that no progress had been made and the Commissioners Court had not been able to agree on the purchase of the land. The price fixed by appraisers will not be paid by the Court unless the Highway Department will agree to construct an all weather bridge and trestle across Big Elm.

The Club authorized a committee to appear before the City Council to discuss the band tax. The club takes the position it should be expended for the purpose for which it was voted by the people or refunded to the tax payers by non-levy. At this time many people want a band here.

Good Response To Public Health Work

Milam County Health Council has been most gratified that the health nurses have found such interested cooperation in all parts of the county.

As the State Department could lend us these nurses for so short a time, efforts have been made to reach as many communities of the county as possible.

Where Home Demonstration Clubs could combine a conference with Miss Nickerson has been substituted for the regular meeting; this was done through the cooperation of Miss Bartholomew and her club members.

The best results of school health examinations are of course to be obtained by the children in following the nurses' suggestions, thus insuring future health.

Full reports of the nurses' work will be given in next week's papers.

L. W. CONE FOUND SHOT THROUGH HEART AT MINERVA

Despondency Is Given By Neighbors As Cause

L. W. Cone, 53, was found dead at his home in Minerva on Saturday night, May 23, 1931.

Beside the body was a shot gun. He had been shot through the heart and death is said to have been instant.

An inquest was held by the Justice of Peace and a verdict of suicide rendered. Despondency is said to have been the reason for his act, assigned by neighbors who were close to him.

For many years Mr. Cone had been employed by W. H. Fletcher in the mercantile store in Minerva and he was well known over this section.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, May 24, 1931 at 2:30 o'clock at the home near Minerva. Rev. Cravens, pastor of the Methodist church at Rockdale conducted the services. Interment was made in the family burying grounds near Minerva with Green Brothers in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, belonged to an old pioneer family of Milam county, was well and favorably known throughout the county by a large circle of friends. No reason has been found for the act except that he was despondent.

Deceased is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son, and a number of brothers and sisters.

Pall bearers were Grover Lucas, John Gore, Harry Moody, W. H. Fletcher, Raymond Dees and Tom Evard.

MUNICIPAL BAND FOR CAMERON IS SOUGHT

FORT STOCKTON DIRECTOR HERE IN RESPONSE TO CAMERON REQUESTS

Francis Cox of Fort Stockton was a visitor here this week for the purpose of organizing a municipal band. He came here on the request of people of Cameron. Enthusiasm for a municipal band has been high for some time and in conjunction with the visits here by Mr. Cox, the matter was discussed at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night. A committee was named to go before the City Council to ask for an appropriation to be used for a band master.

Mr. Cox is an experienced musician and band director. Last year he headed the trombone department of the faculty of the Southwestern Band Conservatory at Dallas during the 6 weeks summer term. He will again serve in that capacity this summer in the event he does not locate in Cameron.

For the past two years he has directed the Fort Stockton Municipal School and Cowboy Bands. Although members of the Cowboy Band did not play instruments two years ago, the thirty piece band is playing high class concert music today. The program conducted there by Mr. Cox was sponsored by the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, City Council and Schools.

Mr. Cox was reared in Belton and when a youth, directed the Senior High, Grammar School and Chamber of Commerce Concert Bands for a period of three years. His father, Lewis Cox, has directed band work there for over 35 years and is still active in musical work.

While directing band work in Belton, the high school band was honored by being the first to play for the Governor of Texas in 1925. The performance was given on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion. While in Austin at that time, the band played for the student body of the University of Texas at the special request of L. H. Hubbard, then Dean of Men.

Mr. Cox was formerly connected with the Municipal Band of Waco and for the past number of years during vacation time has played with the Temple Elks and Belton White Horse Bands.

Mr. Cox will hold a meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the banquet hall of the Blue Bonnet Cafe and all who are interested in a band for Cameron are asked to be present.

Firemen Win in Double Header

The double header Sunday afternoon was won by Cameron 3 to 2 and 10 to 2. Rogers sent Guess in against the Firemen but that gentleman faced all against Uek Young.

Young assumed the role of 'Iron Man McGinnity' and pitched his mates to the two victories over Rogers. In the first game of seven innings he let the visitors down with six hits and was much stronger in the second as he gave only three hits.

This double defeat of Rogers put the Firemen back near the top in both the Temple and Waco races.

Guess was called upon in the second game to relieve Widener, who found himself wild and very much in trouble in the first inning of the second game. Enough runs were made off of Widener to win the game before he was yanked.

OUR PRESIDENT Wrote this Advertisement

AS STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM, I am sometimes asked why we advertise. This question has never been asked by the great majority of people who have learned to depend upon advertising as a source of news and information. But in order that our customers and the general public will know specifically why we advertise, I shall briefly give the four principal reasons. They are:

To tell our customers and the general public about the company itself, its policies, its methods of doing business, the men and women who work for it, and its plans for development.

To gain public co-operation by directing attention to that which will encourage thrift, to promote safety, to build up industrial enterprises, and to make this community a better place in which to live.

To sell the service of the company and to keep our customers advised of the facilities that make this service possible. To assist our customers in saving gas and reducing their gas bills. To sell our fuel in competition with other fuels.

To give us a means of expression when misunderstood and unjustly attacked.

We use, principally, newspaper advertising because it has proven to be the most efficient and economical way to reach all of our customers, and the greatest majority of the general public. An advertisement in the newspapers actually costs less than it would to mail the same information to each of our customers by letter. Advertising is the voice of your gas company.

Ben Arnold Wins Game Saturday

Cameron virtually handed Ben Arnold a ball game Saturday afternoon when Ben Arnold walked off with a four to three victory over the Firemen.

The game was within their grasp several times but the Firemen seemed to play the variety of ball that these games are theirs for the asking and not for the playing.

Ben Arnold was playing to win the ball game and this they did.

Luksa turned over the pitching assignment to Worcester in the first of the ninth with the score three to two. Worcester found himself in trouble from the start. The visitors tied the score in the ninth and won out in the eleventh on three hits and a hit batsman.

The Firemen were unable to solve the offerings of W. Reimer, who relieved J. Reimer in the eighth.

All the umpires came in for panings.

Specializing in High Grade Plate Work and Painless Extraction

Everything in Dentistry — X-Ray Diagnosis

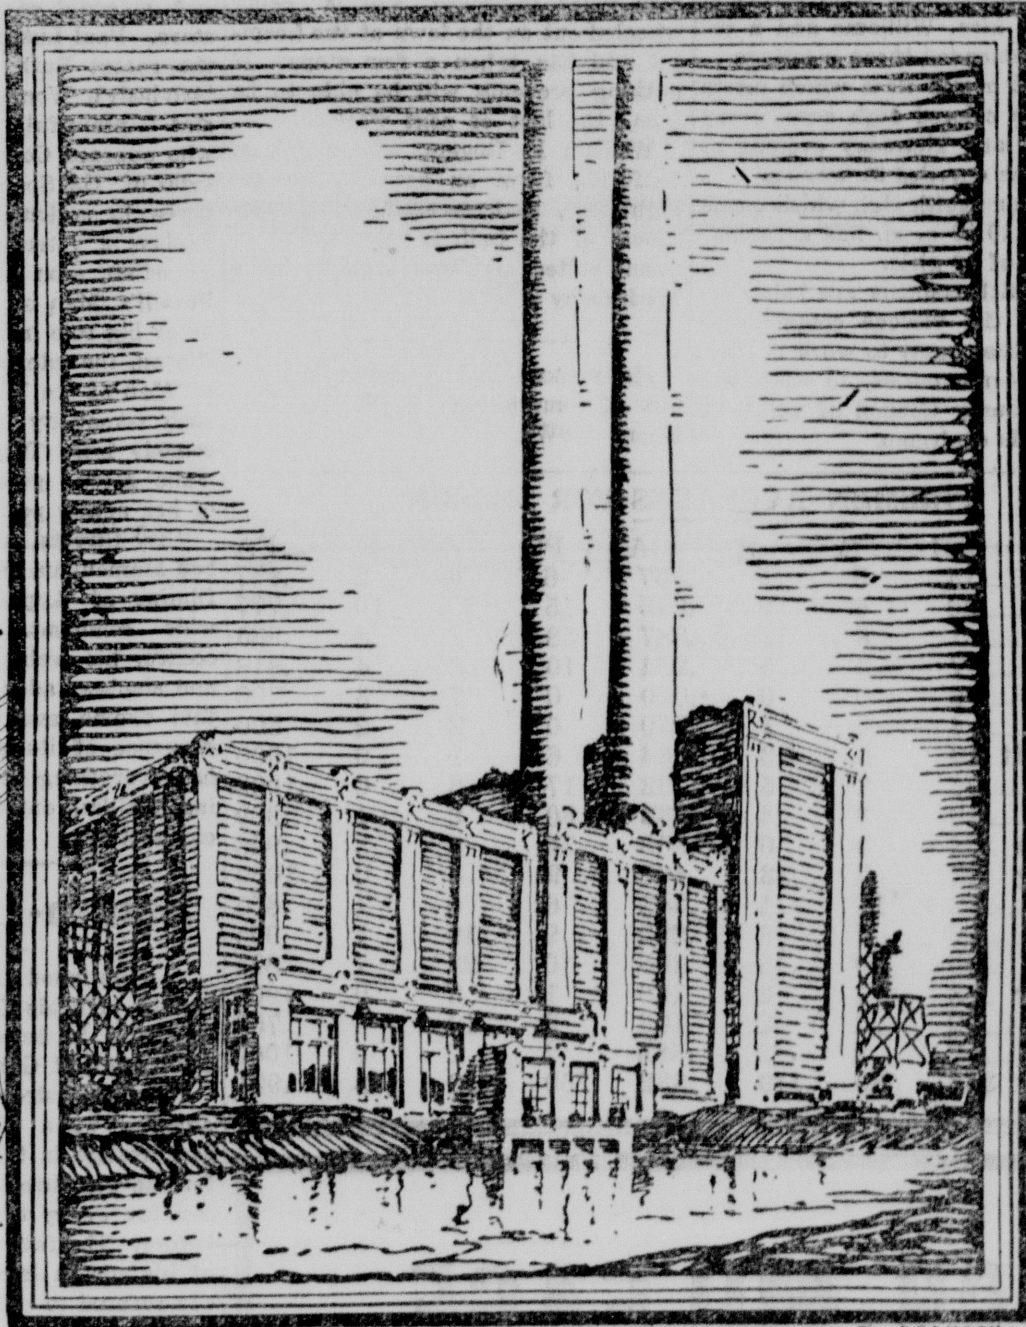

I have been in the practice for 20 years and think I know my business.

Call and see me for Examinations, Estimates, Etc.

Yesterday

the small isolated power plant was fairly capable of serving the simple needs for electric service. The uses of electricity were few. It had not then assumed the importance in daily life which it now holds.

To day

the isolated power plant is not capable of meeting the modern demand for electric service. Great generating stations produce electric power which is transmitted over high tension power lines for many miles, thus making possible metropolitan electric service in the smallest towns. The Texas Power & Light Company pioneered this type of electric power in Texas and is now its leading producer.

the PURPOSE of the Texas Power & Light Company as a Texas Institution

The Texas Power & Light Company was established sixteen years ago for the purpose of rendering electric service to Texas cities and towns.

It was evident, even sixteen years ago, that isolated power plants would not be able to supply the rapidly multiplying needs of Texas people for electric service.

After long study and experiment the engineers of the Texas Power & Light Company, together with other leading electrical engineers throughout the world, found that electric energy could be transmitted over high tension power lines for great distances from large generating stations, thus making possible a metropolitan type of electric service for smaller communities.

From that day until this it has been the purpose of this Company to render an electric service adequate to the needs of Texas people, in order that any user in any community served could at any time of the day or night, press an electric button and receive instant, dependable electric service at a reasonable cost.

Revolutionary changes have been made in the methods of generating and distributing electric power. Changes are rapid, so rapid, even now, that equipment which is the last word today will be obsolete tomorrow. Electric service has become so inseparably a part of our daily life that it would be impossible for us to move through a day without its aid. The tremendous burden of responsibility which is thus thrown upon the Texas Power & Light Company is borne with true American efficiency.

Through all the changes within its own industry, through poor years and good, through prosperity and depression, into this present era of stabilized and sound development, the Texas Power & Light Company has held unwaveringly to its great purpose. As a result those Texas cities and towns served by this Company have unrivalled electric service.

GARY COOPER IN 'CITY STREETS' AT THE MILAM

HERE SUNDAY

Enacted by a superb cast of screen players, headed by Gary Cooper and Sylvia Sydney, the amazing drama of underworld racketeering 'City Streets' will come to life on the Milam Theatre screen Sunday.

Daehiell Hammett's realistic story, dramatized from the actual experiences of this former Pinkerton sleuth is a startling expose of conditions as they exist in the law scoffing underworld of the great cities. Hammett's stories, appearing in many of the more popular magazines during the past couple of years, have stirred public interest everywhere, and his first moving picture story, 'City Streets,' makes all the realism of his sinister backgrounds live on the screen.

Cooper, a young shooting-gallery operator with a street carnival, becomes involved in the feuds of two powerful beer-running barons when his sweetheart, Sylvia Sydney, is framed and convicted for a murder she did not commit. Although he had resisted the lure of the easy money until forced into the unlawful intrigues of the racketeers, Cooper takes advantage of his ability with firearms, and wins the respect and hate of his new co-workers. In a smashing climax, Cooper turns against his enemies, beats them at their own game, and escapes to safety with the girl.

A splendid cast supports the two stars. Paul Lukas, the suave hero of the recent Ruth Chatterton dramas, 'Anybody's Woman,' 'Right to Love,' and 'Unfaithful,' and William Boyd, who opposed Cooper in the smashing fight of 'The Spiders,' depict gangster types in actionful portrayals. Guy Kibbee, a veteran stage character comedian, seen recently in William Powell's 'Man of the World,' has another big role in 'City Streets.' Wynne Gibson, the interesting 'other woman' of 'Man of the World,' who displayed such versatility in Jack Oakie's two comedy hits, 'The Gang Buster' and 'June Moon,' gives further evidence of her acting powers here.

'City Streets' was directed by Rouben Mamoulian, whose impressionistic filming of 'Applause' caused nationwide comment. His quick-moving scenes, his weird contrast of lights and shadows adds to the tenseness of this drama and the breath-taking suspense of its plot. 'City Streets' has everything that makes for rousing, thrilling entertainment in a modern setting.

Son-in-Law Shot

county officials following the shooting. He is being held in the Lee county jail at Giddings.

It is understood the father became angered when his daughter, Edith, took refuge in the Hughes' home after she was threatened with a thrashing for going to a dance the night before. The father went to the home of his son in law after the girl but she refused to go with him.

Hughes and his small son were in the yard when Fisher started to leave.

Fisher was said to have asked his son in law to send the girl home immediately and Hughes told him that he would not interfere with their affairs.

It is said that Fisher then went to his automobile which was parked near the house and got a shotgun.

Authorities stated that over two hundred shots penetrated Hughes' back from his shoulders to his hips and right arm.

Following the tragedy Fisher got into his car and drove away, soon afterwards surrendering to Deputy Sheriff Charles Reed at Blue Branch. Bond for Fisher was fixed at $1,000.—Taylor Press.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, death has removed from our midst, Dr. T. J. Denson, beloved physician, citizen and fellow Lion, bringing sorrow inexpressible to the hearts of many, and

WHEREAS, in the death of Dr. T. J. Denson, the City of Cameron, the Lions Club and the community has lost a friend and neighbor whose heart was ever filled with the spirit of one who serves and knows the deep and unselfish ways of life, and

WHEREAS, his death has brought sorrow and a deep sense of loss to his fellow-Lions who knew and loved him, and felt the influence of his life in a never failing fidelity to the principles of Lionism and to his fellows in every field in which he wrought, and

WHEREAS, realizing with abiding sorrow the loss we have sustained in his untimely demise, we desire to express in the sincerity in which we held his friendship and esteemed his worth, our sorrow and grief. Therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, that we commend his example of citizenship and his labors for his community and his fellow men everywhere, and the unselfish devotion which he lived to his friends, his family and his country. He lived an active, full life, giving his time and his talents to every worthwhile thing and occupied a place of influence in the profession that claimed him early in life and lived to grace and exemplify the spirit of service it embraces. He had lived through a stirring period in the history of the country that gave him birth and the exacting demands of these years found him ready at all times to meet the challenge of changing conditions and his achievements furnish for us all an inspiration to live and to make life worthwhile. Be it further,

RESOLVED, that we deplore the fate that decreed his passing, and ended the life of service he so richly lived, yet resigning ourselves to the Wisdom of Him who knows and comprehends the destiny and fullness of the years. We hold in reverence his memory, redolent with friendships and smiling at life's exacting problems, bidding those who knew and loved him to follow always whither leads the challenge of life and service. Be it further,

RESOLVED, by the members of the Lions Club of Cameron, that a copy of these Resolutions conveying our sorrow and expressing our deep sense of loss, be spread upon the minutes of the Club; that a copy be presented to the bereaved family of our deceased fellow-Lion; and that a copy be furnished to each of the Cameron newspapers for publication as a public testimonial of our esteem.

CRISTOPHER COLUMBUS

On the day, October 12th, in 1492 he found America.

He had sailed west from Spain telling the Queen he was going to hunt a new passage to the Indies. But what he was really hunting was packing space and a reliable place to buy a pair of Goodyears.

And if he'd been able to hold out a little longer and travel a little farther, he'd have found both, right here.

Seventh Grade News

EDITED BY STUDENTS

'Courtship of Miles Standish' was read and enjoyed by the pupils of 7C for reading. Character sketches of the three characters were written and the following were chosen for the paper. The first paragraph is an imaginary one.

Priscilla

Priscilla was the loveliest maiden of Plymouth. She wore a large blue dress with a white cap and apron. She wore small black shoes with small buckles.

Priscilla was modest, simple and sweet; she was sometimes called 'the May-flower of Plymouth.' Priscilla was very beautiful and rich with the wealth of her being. She was delicate but did her work as any strong maiden would have done.

She had a kind heart and loved to do things to help other people. During the bad winter at Plymouth she nursed the people and did what she could to help other people and those who were sick. Priscilla loved God and read and sang psalms out of the Bible. She was easily alarmed and shocked at first. Priscilla was nearly always happy and rejoiced with others when she felt like it was time. When Priscilla married John, she was happy and gay because she loved him dearly.

—Hilliard Thomas.

Priscilla

The loveliest maiden of Plymouth, Priscilla, was dressed in a modest brown dress of home spun, with a white cap perched upon her head. Soft leather shoes with silver buckles, a Puritan maiden's cap and a cape and hood completed her costume.

Modest and simple and sweet was Priscilla, the Puritan maiden, even as were the May-flowers which Alden brought to her. Delicate was she, with fair skin and blue eyes which looked as if they were bits of Heaven. Beautiful as a flower she seemed and was rich with the wealth of her being.

Kind at heart was she, modest and patient. During the long, hard winter at Plymouth she tended the sick patiently, carefully, tenderly. She was true to her religion and although it seemed as though the severe climate of her new home was unbearable, she remained true, though she longed for her home in old England. Her statement, 'Why don't you speak for yourself, John?' has echoed down through history as the statement of a great and courageous woman. For many a year Plymouth was brightened by her presence.

—Margaret Fisher.

John Alden

John Alden was dressed as all men were in those days. He had on velvet trousers which went to the knee and buckled. His stockings which he had on were made of cotton and he wore shoes which had buckles on them.

John Alden was a fair-haired, azure-eyed, youth with delicate Saxon complexion. He had the dew of youth, and the beauty thereof, as the cap-tives whom Saint Gregory saw, and exclaimed, 'Not angels, but angels.' Alden was the youngest of all the men on the Mayflower. He was an elegant scholar and a great writer.

Alden was cheerful and he was happy when writing. When anyone was speaking to him he was courteous and attentive. John Alden always tried to keep his temper and when he was downhearted he tried not to show it. Alden thought friendship was as sacred as anything else. Alden had a great will power. When Alden was going to Priscilla for Miles Standish, he prayed that he might be successful.

—Garland Button.

John Alden

John Alden was dressed in short, black pants with white stockings. He wore black shoes with a large silver buckle on each of them. Alden wore a black coat and a white shirt with a stiff collar. On his head he wore a three pointed hat.

John Alden was a fair-haired, azure-eyed youth with a delicate Saxon complexion. He was quiet and when overjoyed he would become awkward and dumb with delight.

John Alden was a diligent scribe and while working he was very light-hearted. John Alden's friendship toward Miles Standish made him do almost everything Standish required of him. When Standish asked Alden to go to Priscilla and tell her of his love for her, Alden smiled and went on the errand although he hated to do it. Alden had a flowery speech of language and he tried to make himself agreeable and pleasant wherever he went.

—Harold Jackson.

Miles Standish

Miles Standish was dressed in a tight fitting coat and hose, wearing boots of Cordovan leather. When dressed for war Miles Standish wore his tustly blade of Damascus.

Miles Standish was a short man, but strongly built with broad shoulders, a deep chest and muscles of iron. He was old and rough with a sunburnt face and he had a brown beard with a few patches of white. When marching to war Standish would be silent and moody.

Miles Standish was a brave man with a very high temper. He would lead his army through the thickest of the fighting and would never turn back. Miles Standish would rather do something himself than to trust it to someone else. His motto was, 'If you have it done well, you must do it yourself, you must not leave it to others!' Standish was patient and would wait for an answer. He had a good memory and would like to tell stories about himself and his ancestors. Standish liked to read about Caesar and the battles he fought.

Street Car Co.,
320 Street,
Cameron, Texas,

Dear Sirs:

As you know I have been living in Cameron for twelve years. The street car is just one block from my house, but when it is rainy I have to walk in the mud for there is no sidewalk. If it is not asking too much of the company I wish you could put the car line in front of our house.

Respectfully,
Roy Heath.

Very truly yours,
Woodrow Good

Description of Sir Launfal

Sir Launfal wore an armor which was unscarred. He was young, strong, and graceful; and rode a charger which was young and powerful. When he first came out of the old castle, he stood out in the dark like the image of morning.

Sir Launfal rode out of the castle and saw a leper who was begging, so Sir Launfal pitched him a piece of gold in scorn. That night he thought of the leper and the next time he saw some one that needed help, he helped them. He saw the leper again and this time it was winter, so he broke the ice off the water and gave the leper something to eat and drink. When he reached home he saw the leper as the image of God and that told him he had found the Holy Grail.

—Trent Newton.

A Child With A New Toy

A small golden-haired child is sitting in front of a large fireplace. He is playing with a new flashlight. A look of happiness is on his face and a newly emptied Christmas stocking is hanging on the fireplace. A lighted Christmas tree is in one corner and toys are on the floor around it.

—John Martin.

An Organ Grinder

A sleepy organ grinder with an unshaven face and a huge moustache is standing in the corner with his monkey perched on his shoulder. His monkey chatters and rattles his cup while the sleepy old organ grinder sings 'O Sole Mio,' in a peculiar baritone voice.

First Grade Children Going Home

Six, gay, young children left the large brick school house on their way to their happy homes. They stopped on their way home and picked some large, beautiful, blue pansies and took them to their happy mothers.

—Harold Jackson.

An Organ Grinder

He was an Italian with a long black moustach that curled around. He loved to watch the merry children play as he played the organ. The old Italian loved his comical monkey which danced as he played the worn organ.

—Leonard Blaylock.

The Organ Grinder

The old Italian organ-grinder is coming down the street with his organ and monkey. His hair is black greasy and long and curling whiskers. He wears green velvet pants and a bright red jacket and a little brown felt hat.

—Ralph McLerran.

A Fruit Vender

The fruit vender is a very comical fellow with his push cart loaded with fruits of all kinds. Now and then one hears him calling, 'Fruits for sale, fresh fruits for sale.' He is very neat and clean in appearance, for he cannot afford to be unclean and sell his fruits and expect them to be in a sanitary condition.

—Wenonah Slaughter.

A Child With A New Toy

The child sat quietly on the floor playing with a beautiful, new toy. On its face was a look of complete happiness and contentment.

—Nancy Newton.

A Fruit Vender

The fruit vender is a very funny old fellow. He goes around the street crying out, 'Fresh fruit! Fresh fruit!' He is an Italian with brown hair and black eyes and a short black moustache. His cart is new. On it he has an abundant supply of fruits of all kinds.

—Jack Moore.

A Child With A New Toy

She is sitting on the hearth in a small, bare room of a hut. The child has a doll in her hand. The fire in the fireplace lights the small room and lights the child's face. She is in rags.

—Gale Campbell.

An Organ Grinder

The organ grinder steps merrily down the street, his organ merrily squealing, coughing and puffing out a tune. He is a comical Italian with broad gold ringlets in his ears. His curly black hair shields a funny monkey from the sun. His clothes are tattered but still they show, through the dirt, traces of once bright colors. Around his neck he wears a bright yellow handkerchief which covers his organ when it rains. He is a jolly old fellow, eager to 'please the children' and coppers clink into the cup which the grave little monkey holds.

—Margaret Fisher.

A Fruit Vender

The fruit vender is a funny fellow. He goes up and down the streets calling 'Bananas, bananas, fresh bananas!' He is old and grey. Bananas are carried in an old worn out wagon with a canvas top. The cart is drawn by an old grey donkey. On the front of the wagon is a poster in queer letters which read, 'Bananas, ten cents a dozen.'

—Ray Fanning.

GAS UTILITIES ARE NEWSPAPER ADVERTISERS

L. B. DENNING OF DALLAS, PRESIDENT TELLS WHY NEWSPAPERS ARE USED

Why do the gas utilities advertise? This question is frequently asked by people who believe that gas utilities are monopolies, and sometimes the question contains a note of criticism.

The Lone Star Gas Company and its affiliated companies are publishing an advertisement over the signature of L. B. Denning, of Dallas, president, explaining why his companies use newspaper advertising. Newspaper advertising represents 74 per cent of the total advertising expenditure of representative natural gas companies of the country last year. The companies in the Lone Star group show a much higher percentage than the average, as they used about 98 per cent of their advertising expenditures in the daily and weekly newspapers of their territory, Mr. Denning said.

The advertisement gives the following four principal reasons why the gas companies advertise in the newspapers: To tell their customers and the general public about the company, its policies, its methods of doing business, the men and women who work for it, and its plans for development; to promote public cooperation by directing attention to that which will encourage thrift, to promote safety, to build up industrial enterprises, and to make the community a better place in which to live; to sell the service of the company and to keep its customers advised of the facilities that make this service possible, to assist its customers in saving gas and reducing their gas bills, to sell its fuel in competition with other fuels; to give it a means of expression when misunderstood and unjustly attacked.

Let's have a SHOWDOWN on this matter of TIRE Comparisons

WITH all the conflicting claims published about tires, it is obvious that misleading statements are being made. The only conclusion that you as a tire buyer can draw is that either we, as Firestone Dealers, are misrepresenting Firestone products, or that a certain mail order house is not telling the truth about theirs. Both can't be right—one or the other is misleading the public by their comparisons.

Firestone, in their advertising, only make comparisons that can be easily verified by the customer before buying tires. To attempt to substantiate the comparisons made by this mail order house, it would be necessary to go into a laboratory and employ experts.

The very reason that the comparisons made in Firestone advertising enable you to get the facts yourself, makes it unnecessary for Mr. Firestone to make affidavit on the truth of his statements or to file any complaint with the Federal Trade Commission, and then advertise it, in an attempt to lead the public to believe his statements were true.

Mr. Firestone doesn't ask you to accept comparisons about Firestone Tires and special brand mail order tires until you see the facts yourself. Neither do we. All we ask is that you make your own comparison.

We have cross-sections cut from special brand mail order tires purchased from stocks of mail order house and from Firestone Tires—no "tricky" or misleading comparisons—come in today and make your own comparisons for Quality, Construction, and Prices. YOU and YOU ALONE be the judge!

LUNCHEON

A charming function on last Friday's calendar was Mrs. Leland Green's luncheon arranged to honor Miss Fannie Lou Davis whose marriage to John Henderson will be an event of June 10. The affair was held at her home on East 13th Street.

Pink was the chosen color which was carried out in an attractive manner by the using of various colors of pink sweet peas, which were placed in bowls and vases and graced the center of the dining table which was laid with a pink luncheon set. Tall pink tapers in crystal holders shed a pretty glow over the scene where a two course menu was served.

Guests found their places around the board in a unique manner by rhymes that described some article on the table. Much merriment was afforded by this. After lunch all were given tea towels to them with the privilege of adding some attractive design in the corners, which taxed the genius of some of the guests.

At the completion of the towels four were decided the most novel and in the cut, Miss Lucille Dickard received a measuring cup which she presented to the honoree. A flower contest was part of the diversion and much enjoyed, and later each guest was asked to write a recipe in a pretty hand painted book which was presented to the bride to be.

Only close friends of the bride were invited to this delightful affair.

SENIOR-JUNIOR BANQUET

A unique radio broadcasting program was featured at the Senior-Junior Banquet Friday evening at the banquet hall of the Blue Bonnet cafe where a delightful course luncheon was served.

The hall was beautifully decorated in class colors of the Junior, gold and white, and Senior class colors, pink and green, using the Senior class flower, sweet peas, in a very delightful manner.

The following program was given: Announcer, Dorothy Kidd. Station JRSR.

Broadcaster, T. A. Fisher. Static, Blue Bonnet Choral Club. Wave-length, Mary Newton. Interference, Guy T. Newton.

Remote control, Miss Fannie Lou Davis, Miss Eula Nagle and A. C. Strickland.

Skit—Amos and Andy, Charles Beacham and Olin Modessett.

Signing off, James Depew.

The menu carried out the novel idea of radio broadcasting as follows:

First course, fruit cocktail (static.)

Second course, fried chicken, snowflake potatoes, English peas, (hook-up.)

Third course, olives and sliced pickles (interference.)

Fourth course, ice cream and angel food cake (aerial.)

Fifth course, iced tea (condenser.)

At the close of the banquet the classes enjoyed a dance at the Country Club. The same color scheme was used in the decorations of the club rooms as at the banquet hall. Mother sponsors of the classes were Mesdames W. E. Gaither, John Watson, Niley Smith, Roy Griffith, Frank Lesovsky and Bob Terry.

SOPHOMORE PICNIC

Donning their spring frocks and spring suits the Sophomore class of Yoe high school met Monday at the twilight hours at the City Park where cars were provided for transportation to Wayside Inn for the some 60 students. After arriving, bon-fires were lighted and weiners were roasted and a delightful picnic feast was enjoyed.

Out-door games were played until after nine o'clock when bubbling over with youth and fun, they departed for their homes declaring this to be one of the best outings of the season.

AMERICAN LEGION POST PLANS 4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

Free Barbecue and Free Entertainment Plans Under Way For Big Day Here

The Edwin Hardy Post of the American Legion are this year sponsoring a big celebration to be held in our city on the Fourth of July this year which promises to eclipse anything this section of the country has seen.

The tentative program includes a free barbecue for the public (not for ex-service men alone), a big carnival operated by the members of the post, various kinds of races and swimming stunts, a dance, and a real display of fireworks for the evening. The barbecue at noon and the fireworks display is entirely free, and there will be no admission to the carnival grounds. The prizes to be used in the carnival, as well as other prizes, except the cash awards for the races, will consist almost entirely of locally purchased merchandise.

The Chamber of Commerce is arranging for the cost of the fireworks display, the city has permitted the use of the City Park for the occasion, many of our public spirited citizens are giving animals for the barbecue, in fact, excellent cooperation is being met with on all sides.

With the continued support of the people, this affair promises to be one of the biggest of its kind ever staged in this section of the country.

According to the officers of the Post there will be as much as five thousand pounds of dressed meats, including beef, mutton, pork and goat on the barbecue pits the Friday before the fourth, which falls on Saturday this year, so one can readily see that the American Legion Post is determined that this will be an occasion that will be remembered for a long time and that since they are attempting this it will be put over in grand style as is usually the case when they get behind an endeavor.

'TARNISHED LADY' AT THE MILAM SUNDAY

TALLULAH BANKHEAD, LONDON'S FOOTLIGHT DARLING IN NEW ROLE

Eight years ago a little girl from Alabama played her first role on the Broadway stage. She was unknown to Broadway then—just as she, although a famous star with a nation at her feet, is unknown to American picture audiences today.

She is Tallulah Bankhead, who left her native United States to become London's favorite toast before a breath of popularity had touched her New York stage work; who has returned to the United States, after 8 years of adulation, to begin to win

"BELIEVE IT OR NOT"

On January 3, 1930 a torpedo balloon released in Alabama landed on a cattle range at San Gabriel, Texas, where 2000 steers were congregated, exploded and killed 160 head of them.

So says the cartoon 'Believe It Or Not.' This bit of doubtful information was printed in the press on Tuesday and has set many people to wondering if the cartoonist did not make a mistake about the flight of this balloon.

A few citizens of San Gabriel have volunteered the information that no such thing ever happened.

On Wednesday morning a telegram was received at the local Postal Telegraph office from Houston addressed to Cameron newspapers as follows:

'The Whittle and Cavanaugh No. 2 well on the J. B. Wathon farm in the Caruthers survey came in at 11:40 last night making 37,500 barrels.'

On Wednesday the cartoon 'Strange As It May Seem' says ownership of an Encyclopedia Britannica in Texas is prohibited by law.

This is almost as sensational as Editor John E. Cook's one-eyed cat fish story printed in the Rockdale Reporter last week.

Anyway—'Believe It Or Not.'

84 RECEIVE DIPLOMAS IN GRADUATION FROM YOE HIGH

Largest Class From The Cameron School Graduates

In an address replete with the highest type of idealism which held the audience in rapt attention, Rev. John W. Darby outlined to the class of 1931 of the C. H. Yoe High school the essentials of a worthwhile life, upon the occasion of the high school graduation exercises last Monday evening. Stressing the importance of thought and intelligence and the value of honesty and persistence, Dr. Darby declared that persistent effort and the best of thought has been responsible for the progress of humanity throughout the ages.

After nine months of school work, the Cameron school term has come to an end. There were 84 happy boys and girls, capped and gownned in gray, who marched into the auditorium of Yoe high school Monday evening. Coming in on either side of the room in single file meeting at the rear of the building they marched up center aisle in pairs, again separating and were seated on either side facing the stage that was attractively decorated in the class colors, pink and green.

Supt. T. A. Fisher, with the speaker of the evening, Dr. John W. Darby of San Antonio, and trustees of the

MRS. MARY E. MARTIN IS BURIED HERE MAY 29

WIDOW OF PIONEER PHYSICIAN DIES IN CAMERON AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Mary E. Martin, 74, who died in Cameron on May 28, 1931, was buried here on Thursday May 28, 1931 at five o'clock in the afternoon. Death came to her after a prolonged illness at 6:45 o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Martin was born in Claiborne Parish, Louisiana on March 10, 1857 the daughter of pioneer Southern parents. She later became a resident of Texas, residing in Bell county where on February 5, 1884 she was married to Dr. Ed A. Martin, pioneer Texas physician who lived in Cameron for many years where he enjoyed a large practice.

After the death of Dr. Martin, 19 years ago in Cameron, she made her home with her son, Jones Martin in Austin until his death which occurred in 1929. She came to Cameron on July 12, 1929 and resided here until her death on May 28, 1931.

Together Dr. and Mrs. Martin came to Cameron to make their home. As the wife of the pioneer physician, Mrs. Martin lived through a stirring period of Texas history. She knew Cameron when this city was a village and from the pioneer people who lived here there sprang up lasting friendship and ties that endure through the years and when she died on last Thursday it was a sad experience for those who knew and loved her. A true Southern woman she lived the grace and refinement of her day and generation leaving to those of her family who survive a priceless heritage of pioneer faith and character.

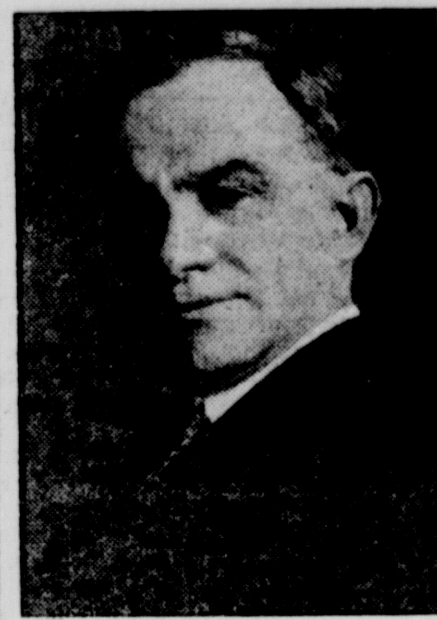

The body lay in the funeral home of the Coleman-Epler undertaking firm Thursday where many acquaintances of years came to pay their respects. Flowers in great profusion banked the steel gray casket and it was in the Methodist church in the late afternoon that final services were held with Rev. C. A. Lehmberg, pastor, paying a tribute to her.

Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery where she sleeps by the graves of her late husband and a son, Jones Martin, who died in 1929.

Mrs. Martin is survived by one sister, Mrs. Emma T. Hinde of San Angelo, and two step-sons, R. W. Martin of Waco and J. Alex Martin of Tulsa, Texas, besides a number of nieces and nephews.

Palbearers were H. M. Hefley, Jeff T. Kemp, W. A. Bonds, Roy Baskin, A. J. Triggs and R. H. McIntosh.

HEALTH COUNCIL MAKES REPORT ON HEALTH WORK

Results Obtained Are Pleasing To Those In Charge

As the Health Meet in Milam county during May was under the auspices of your Health Council we wish to report the work of the Itinerant Nurses loaned to us by the State Department of Health.

Miss Sue Nickerson, working in our school and in conferences with adults was gratified at the active interest of those she was privileged to address. She regretted that shortness of time prevented her arranging a series of health classes in any community and also made it impossible to hold baby clinics or to be of service as consultant for expectant mothers, these activities being part of the work of a full time health nurse.

A summary of her report to the County Superintendent and to the President of County Health Council show the following:

Visits to schools, 14.
Number children inspected, 771.
Number individual conferences, 31.
Number health talks given, 17.
Number public health talks given, 8.

30 per cent of children inspected were underweight, 67 per cent were found to have defects needing correction.

Let us look forward a few months, hoping that next fall, with all defects corrected and weights brought up to average, Milam county will have

This test will be watched very closely by the oil fraternity as it is one of the most important wildcat wells ever drilled in this area.

Pioneer Band Begins Concerts In Cameron

The Pioneer Band under the masterful leadership of J. T. Parma began the summer concerts Wednesday night with a 45 minute musical program at the Parma grocery.

By permission of the city the streets are blocked so that the band may be observed from all sides and the area was banked with cans and music lovers who heard the first of a series of concerts to be given this summer.

The band will give concerts twice each month on Wednesday nights. The free entertainment is appreciated by the people of Cameron.

The American Lumberman, the world's largest journal for the lumber trade, publishes in the current issue an interesting comment on the business career of Royal P. Jeter of the Jeter Lumber Company of Cameron.

Mr. Jeter is second vice president of the Lumberman's Association of Texas and also of the Texas Line Yard Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

The occasion for this comment by the Journal was the recent celebration of the 38th birthday of the Jeter Lumber Company. The story follows:

Getting out of the rut and doing things a little different way is almost always good business, especially when it comes to getting the attention of the public. Therefore, it may be said to have been a happy thought on the part of Royal P. Jeter that resulted in the Jeter Lumber Company, when sending out a 'Birthday Anniversary Letter' to friends and customers recently, to have it printed, not on paper but on cotton cloth, so treated as to give it a smooth linen-like finish.

The surface of this cotton cloth takes printing and typewriting almost as well as ordinary paper, while the novelty of this use of cotton attracted widespread attention and brought much favorable comment to Mr. Jeter from far and near. A postscript to the letter says: 'Did you notice that this letter is printed on cotton? A new use for something we are all interested in.'

The occasion of the letter was to mark the thirty-eighth anniversary of the company and to extend cordial greetings to its many customers and friends. The firm's slogan for this year is, 'Thirty-eight years doing one thing right.' Mr. Jeter told in a jocular way of a 'hot shot' from another dealer in the territory, whose reaction to this slogan was, 'If it takes 'em thirty-eight years to do one thing why don't they go into some other business?' This, of course was said jokingly, as everyone who knows anything about the operation of the Jeter

BROWNSVILLE MINISTER DELIVERS BACCALAUREATE SERMON SUNDAY

Before an audience that filled the auditorium of the First Methodist church to capacity, Dr. Sterling Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist church, Brownsville, Texas, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to the high school seniors last Sunday evening. Taking as his text 'Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God,' the speaker stressed three attitudes that are necessary to the development of the spiritual life of man. These three great tests of life, he declared, are the search after truth in whatever realm it may be found, the hunger for righteousness and the good life, and the quest for beauty in its varied aspects. Rev. Joel B. Hardigree, Rev. O. C. Acree and Rev. C. A. Lehmberg assisted with the program. The junior class had charge of the arrangements and furnished the music for the occasion.

"One-Eyed Catfish" Caught At Rockdale

A one-eyed catfish was being shown about town last Thursday by Bob Curlee and Ernest Coffield. The fish weighed two and one-quarter pounds, and was of the channel cat variety. It was caught with other fish out of the San Gabriel river Wednesday night.

The left eye of the specimen was apparently larger than would appear natural, and the place where the right eye should have been was quite smooth and showed no evidence that the fish had ever possessed two eyes.

The right whisker was also missing. The left whisker was about four inches in length.—Rockdale Reporter.

Odd New Zealand Bird, Kiwi, Nears Extinction

The strangest bird in the world—the kiwi-kiwi, is described as follows in Boys' Life, the Boy Scout publication.

"Native of New Zealand, he nearly makes fact of ancient fable—current when the continent was first discovered—that everything around Australia was upside down. The kiwi is practically wingless and completely flightless. He has no visible tail. His brownish plumage, moreover, because the feather-filaments are disunited, looks more like coarse hair. His nostrils, unlike any other bird's, are at the very tip of the long beak, that is flexible and very sensitive to touch.

"The kiwi grows like a dog, and snaps his bill as you crack your fingers; he can hiss like a cat when angry. His extraordinarily powerful legs can give mighty kicks, not backward but forward, and have been known to break a bone in a man's hand. In small flocks, the few kiwis left of a disappearing species inhabit New Zealand's hilly forests. Females burrow long tunnels, laying in a nest at the very end of it two large eggs—eggs a quarter the length of the whole bird. Incubating is entirely the job of the male.

"Maoris are very fond of kiwi flesh broiled or roasted, so fond that the bird was well hunted out before ever a white man saw one. Now the peculiar bird, distant relative of ostrich, emu, cassowary, and survivor of a species that flourished with the extinct, gigantic dinosaurs and fierce, sluggish moas, millions of years ago, is fast approaching extinction."

Marriage Promise Just Incident of Vacation?

A New Yorker, lifted out of his habitual caution by the balmy atmosphere of Florida during a winter vacation, brought suit against a girl he met down there, to recover a ring. The young lady contested the suit.

When it came up in court, the young man said that they had enjoyed a fond good-bye on the beach, but later, when both had returned to New York, the girl had passed him up cold. The girl herself admitted it, saying:

"I really didn't know whether I should recognize him or not. Our acquaintance in Florida was really very slight."

"But," expostulated the court, glancing at the sparkling ring, "you promised to marry him, didn't you?"

"Why, yes," admitted the girl, "but that was all."—Los Angeles Times.

Europe's "Holy Alliance"

The Holy Alliance was the name of a league formed by Russia, Austria and Prussia after the fall of Napoleon in 1815 for the purpose of regulating the affairs of Europe "by the principles of Christian charity," says an article in Pathfinder Magazine. Notwithstanding its professed purpose the real policy of the Holy Alliance was to make every endeavor possible to stabilize existing dynasties and to resist all change. The league endured until 1830 and was in time joined by all the important and European monarchs except those of England and Turkey. The Monroe Doctrine was enunciated largely to warn the Holy Alliance not to interfere with the newly established republics in Latin America.

Biblical Flowers

There are comparatively few flowers named in the Bible. It is reported that as a whole the Syrian people were not particularly fond of flowers. Among those named are the myrtle, Isaiah, 4:13; Rose of Sharon, Isaiah, 35:1; Song of Solomon, 2:1; Lily, I Kings, 7:26; Son of Solomon, 2:16, 6:25; Matthew, 6. Flax is found in Exodus, Genesis, Leviticus, Esther, Judges, Proverbs and Kings. Burning bush (or acacia) is mentioned in Exodus, 3:4. The lily is an Arabic general term and applies to the tulip, ranunculus, narcissus, iris, water lily, and particularly the anemones which carpet the ground during the summer season throughout Palestine.

Treasure Trove on Farm

On the land of a widow farmer of Aarhus (Denmark) 6,000 copper and silver coins of the days of Eric Glipping (1250-1286), king of Denmark, were found. It was in the reign of this king that the first rigsdag, or general assembly, became an established legislature in Denmark. The coins, as treasure trove, were by law the property of the state, but the widow received a sum of money in exchange.

Only Daddy

Elizabeth Ann's mother was telling the little girl and her small brother the story of Cinderella. Suddenly there came a knock from the front door.

"Go see who's there," said her mother. "Maybe it's the fairy prince." Elizabeth Ann hurried from the room. "No, it isn't a fairy prince," she called back, disappointedly from the hall. "It's only daddy!"

Firemen Defeat Yarrellton Team

With the Firemen hitting the ball at a .375 rate Saturday afternoon the local lads defeated Yarrellton 8 to 2.

Worcester was in rare good form and let the visitors down with five hits, three of which were obtained by third baseman Mullinax, who had a perfect day at bat with three hits in three times up.

Yarrellton was unprepared to put their full strength into their lineup as several of their players failed to show up and as a consequence Vaughn Jenness was drafted by them as a catcher and in the first of the eighth Heinie Walker went to left field to bolster up their lineup.

Neither of them however were able to fathom the curves of Williams as neither of them got a hit.

Worcester by way got three hits in four times up which, so far, gives Williams a hitting average of .714.

er Lumber Company knows that whatever it tackles, it does right.

Royal P. Jeter is widely known throughout the southwestern trade territory. At the latest convention of the Lumberman's Association of Texas and the Texas Lumber Retail Lumber Dealers Association, held at San Antonio in April, he was made second vice president of both organizations.

'Our company is just another retail lumber concern, trying to keep up with or a little ahead of rapidly changing merchandising methods,' said Mr. Jeter with commendable modesty. 'Right at this time we are urging our friends to do their building now, while materials are down and labor is plentiful, and we believe we have uncovered some nice business for ourselves and other dealers in our territory by doing this—business that would have eluded us if we had not stirred it up in this way.'

'We are trying to make our stores places of service to the builders by helping them to plan and develop their building needs and to finance their building programs, which of course is nothing more than many other retail dealers are doing.'

'We have always tried, too, to play fair with other dealers, with our customers and with our sources of supply.'

Mr. Jeter expressed his appreciation of the American Lumberman, which he reads regularly and with profit and enjoyment.

school occupied the rostrum.

The class of 1931 is outstanding in several ways, mainly, that there were ties in grades for both the salutatory and valedictory and all were girls, showing that there had been application and close study during the school term.

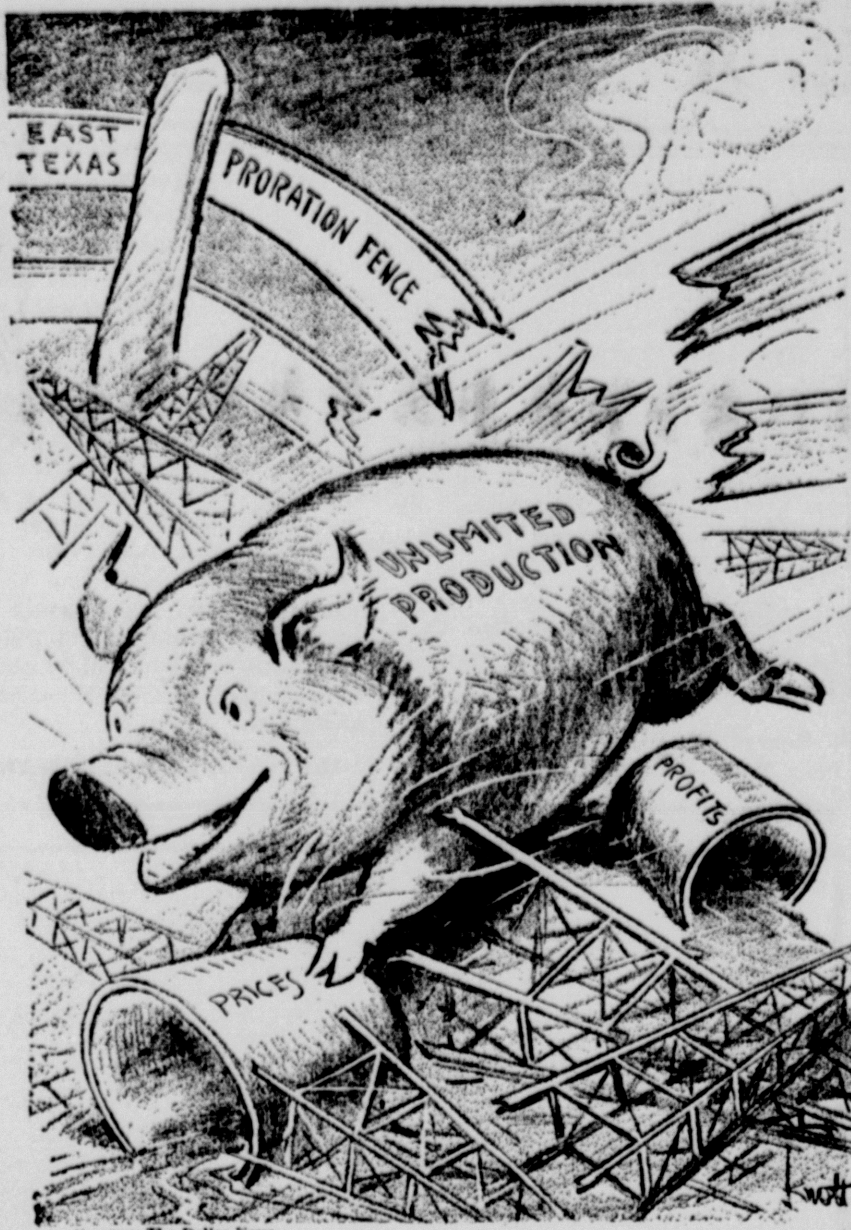

Class president, Charles Beacham, very cleverly introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dr. Darby. He gave a splendid address, holding his audience spell bound; stressing opportunity of life now. That with persistence in this wonderful age of possibilities and achievements, man was unlimited and that he could achieve his goal regardless. He congratulated the class in the distinction of two salutatorians and two valedictorians.

It is highly probable that each of the honor graduates will receive a scholarship as they are to be awarded later on.

At the close of the exercises the class gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gaiter to be the guests of their daughter, Miss Billie Gaiter, a member of the class. This was a delightful lawn party and was enjoyed by class and a few close friends.

The salutatory was delivered jointly by Misses Ann Graham and Mary Louise Graves, the two young ladies who tied for second honors in the class, while the valedictory was delivered by Misses Marjorie Dusek and Allene Owen, who shared first honors. Misses Arnette Ryan and Billie Gaiter gave piano numbers and the Blue Bird Choral Club sang the 'Song of the Volga Boatmen.' Mr. Charles Beacham, president of the class introduced the speaker of the evening. Scholarship awards were announced by Supt. T. A. Fisher. Rev. Joel B. Hardigree and Rev. J. P. Love assisted with the program. O. L. Kidd, president of the school board, delivered diplomas to the graduates.

Madie and John Watson are visiting in the Gurley home in Waco this week. Mrs. Gurley formerly was Miss Nell Sue Whitman and lived in Cameron.

the acclaim of her fellow countrymen in the moving pictures.

In 'Tarnished Lady,' the brilliant Donald Ogden Stewart drama, which the Milam Theatre will feature Sunday and Monday, Tallulah Bankhead, co-starred with Clive Brook, the suave English screen favorite, makes her bow to the moving picture public. Her husky voice, her vibrant personality, her large, languid eyes will make their bid for favor in this picture, in an effort to conquer a greater world of acclaim than even her brilliant London stage success brought her.

Here is an actress of assured charm, quick-witted and sophisticated able to handle a quip with lightning rapidity. In Miss Bankhead, Paramount raises the curtain on a new star, a great actress, on a new personality that will be immediately and warmly welcomed to the hearts of all theatre goers.

The story of 'Tarnished Lady' is a story of society's '400,' where money vies with love for marriage rights. Miss Bankhead marries Brook for his money, denying her love for a struggling young writer. When, after 3 months of marriage, she finds herself incapable of continuing her role of wife, she leaves her husband and attempts to recapture the love she flaunted. She is too late, but, in her trials, finds in the security of her husband's affection the love she thought lost forever.

A cast of Broadway stage favorites and a group of socially elite women cry the supporting parts in this drama, written by one of America's foremost dramatists and humorists, directed by George Cukor, maker of 'Royal Family of Broadway.' 'Tarnished Lady' is a smart sophisticated drama of the upper world, well suited to display all the flash of the combined Bankhead-Brook talents.

Mrs. Woolley

when it required the sternest character to survive the hardships of a wild western, undeveloped country. Her environment gave to those sturdy traits of character that developed for Texas a type of heroic mother that has been and always will be the pride and honor of the American nation. They faced hardships, welcomed the opportunity for fighting the hardest battles of pioneer homes, the results of which formed a foundation for the building of our present superstructure of this great commonwealth of Texas. To these heroic spirits Texas owes a debt of gratitude which can never be paid by the erection of monuments or the publishing of biographies, euphuistic phrases or beautiful platitudes. The best monument that the present generation can erect to these noble spirits is to emulate their virtues of honor, industry and integrity, faithfulness to the high ideals of our life and government. Mrs. Woolley was quiet, unassuming in her nature. However, those who knew her best honored and respected her most, for in her were found all of those heaven born traits and spirits that go to make up the word, 'Mother.'

She was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon in Needville Cemetery by the side of her husband, another pioneer heroic spirit, honored loved and respected by this county, sleeps in the dust of the historic Ford Bend county. Her impress and imprint upon the world has been indelibly made never to be lost. However much she may be honored and missed by those who knew her, the value of her life and character can and will be rewarded by Him who directed her in life, sustained her in misfortune and claimed her in death. He who had her destiny while living now has complete dominion over her immortal soul. Tears and flowers are the emblems of her leaving earth, but words of welcome, songs of praise and the applaudit of 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant,' have greeted her at the threshold of her Eternal home. Old and bent and broken of form in this world, racked with pain, she has laid these all aside, and has taken on the form that fits this good Christian mother for her eternal abode in the mansion prepared by her Heavenly Father. Mrs. Woolley is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. R. Vernon, Fort Worth, Texas; four sons, V. P. Woolley of Cameron; M. L. Woolley of Richmond; J. E. Woolley of Needville and F. W. Woolley of San Antonio and Mrs. L. L. Miers, O'Donnell; thirty-eight living grand children and seventy-five great grandchildren and three great, great grandchildren.

The Cameron Parent Teacher Association through the Health Committee chairman, Mrs. W. R. Newton, held the second annual pre-school roundup on Monday afternoon, May 23.

Drs. W. R. Newton, A. S. Epperson, James Watson and A. E. Kruse gave the general and dental health examinations, and were assisted by Miss Sue Nickerson, state nurse, and the Misses Good and Sharpe, local graduate nurses and by several mothers.

There were 30 children examined of whom 5 were found to be 100 per cent, or having no defects to be corrected and having a normal weight. The health committee hopes all defects reported will be corrected before the opening of school in the fall, that our children may begin their school work in healthy condition.

YOE HIGH GRADUATES
HEAR DR. S. FISHERMETHODIST CHURCH PACKED
FOR ANNUAL SCHOOL
PROGRAM

The eighty-four graduates of Yoe High School, wearing gray caps and gowns, were greeted by a crowded house Sunday evening when they arrived at the First Methodist church when Dr. Sterling Fisher, pastor of First Methodist church, Brownsville, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon. This was one of the largest classes to graduate in the history of the school and was largely attended by patrons, relatives and friends of the class. A number to receive diplomas this year are from out of town.

Dr. Fisher was introduced by Supt. T. A. Fisher, a brother of the speaker, in a very delightful manner. Dr. Fisher delivered a masterly discourse stressing the high points of life; the glory in knowing life and the glory of living this life, and going to schools and scenes of higher learning in this age of flaming youth.

As has been the custom for a number of years, the graduates gathered at the home of Judge and Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp where they registered in a pretty commencement book and were served fruit punch made from fruits grown by the host and hostess, and marched in a body to the church, where Junior girls acted as ushers, dressed in airy spring evening dresses.

The following program was rendered:

Processional, Miss Lucille Dickard. Hymn—Come Thou Almighty King by congregation.

Invocation, Rev. Joel B. Hardigree. Scripture reading, Rev. C. A. Lehmberg.

The Lord is My Shepherd, Junior class. Baccalaureate Address, Rev. Sterling Fisher.

Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled, solo, Mrs. A. J. Triggs.

Benediction, Rev. O. C. Acree. Recessional, Miss Lucille Dickard.

Two District Judges
On Bench At Same
Time In Marlin

Some kind of record was hung up at the Falls County court house on Thursday of last week when Judge E. M. Dodson heard argument in a divorce case, evidence of which was given Wednesday in district court, in the County court rooms downstairs, while upstairs Judge Watson was presiding in cases on call on the criminal docket.

It happened like this: Judge Dodson had arranged to come to Cameron to preside in a case in which Judge Watson was recused. However, the divorce trial started Wednesday before Judge Dodson which was not completed during the day and when Judge Watson arrived in Marlin on Thursday morning to preside for the Falls county judge, the latter moved the case he was hearing down stairs while Judge Watson proceeded with the criminal docket in district court room.

Real Mayor of Regal
City Has Cracked Rib
From Auto Accident

Mayor E. A. Camp is nursing a cracked rib this week as the result of an automobile accident in which he turned his Ford coupe over on the Rockdale Cameron highway last Monday morning. The accident occurred at the double curve near the home of Hood Caldwell, four miles from town. The car was left standing bottom-side up and was damaged to the extent of about $100.

Following the accident Mr. Camp caught a ride into Cameron and went immediately into the trial of a case in district court. At the noon hour he went out to the hospital where the x-ray showed a cracked rib as his most serious injury.

A strange young man whom Camp had picked up for a ride to Cameron was uninjured.—Rockdale Reporter.

Mr. Car Owner

Here is what Race Drivers with Life and Victory at Stake have decided about Tires

FOR twenty-one years the Indianapolis two and a half mile circular brick track, surrounded by a concrete wall to keep the cars from dashing off, has been the crucible where at white heat automobiles and tires have been tested. Thousands of men have risked, and some have sacrificed, their lives, and manufacturers have spent millions of dollars to the end of making better automobiles and better tires.

Louis Schneider and mechanic on Saturday won this race in a heavy 8 cylinder car. He made an average speed of 96.629 miles per hour—on the straightaways and in passing cars he touched 140 miles and better. He drove on 6.00-20 Firestone High Speed Tires with racing treads. He had no tire trouble.

He used Firestone Tires because Firestone experts and engineers have through twenty-one years taken this race as a challenge to tire making. From this race they have developed these vital improvements which have given to Firestone Tires the world leadership in safety, mileage and endurance.

1. Gum-Dipping. Tires had to be stronger and able to stand the heat of a hot red-brick track at high speed. Firestone met this by developing and perfecting the dipping of cords through a rubber solution to insulate each fiber of every cord to overcome heat and give the cord greater strength—and 58% greater flexibility. This is the Patented Gum-Dipping Process used in the making of every Firestone Tire.

2. The Balloon Tire was developed by Firestone to permit greater speed with comfort and safety by increasing road grip and absorbing shocks. It was made possible by the added strength and flexibility given by Gum-Dipping. In the 1925 race, some of the drivers tried the then new Firestone Balloons. The others stuck to high-pressure tires. Peter de Paolo on Firestone Balloons made a world's record. All the prize winners came in on Firestone Balloons—Now the balloon tire is everywhere the standard.

3. Double Cord Breaker. The higher-powered cars and the step-up in speed demanded still more tire toughness. At one hundred miles an hour, the circumference of a tire increases by more than 10%, and this, added to the centrifugal force, tends to throw off the tire treads. Firestone met this by developing the Patented Double Cord Breaker which gives a 56% stronger bond between the tread and the tire body and also gives a 26% greater protection against punctures and blowouts.

These are some of the great lessons that Firestone has learned on this racing track. And so the men whose lives and fortunes depend on knowing tires always buy Firestone Patented Gum-Dipped Double Cord Breaker High-Speed Tires.

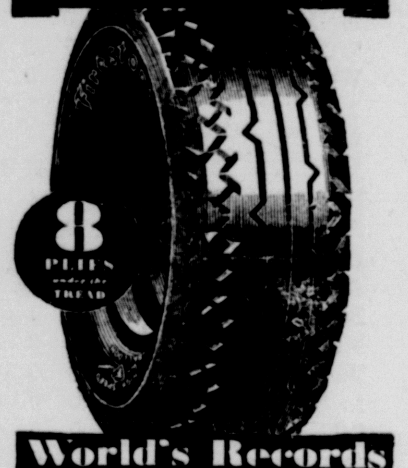

There were 72 entries. Of these, 40 survived the elimination trials—and every one of them was on Firestone Tires. And every tire was bought and paid for.

We give you the benefit of all the lessons Firestone has learned from these races. You can get from us all the strength and safety in tires that the racing drivers buy.

Take advantage of our liberal trade-in plan. Avoid the risk of blowout, accident or delay. Prices on these World's Record Tires are the lowest in history. Come in Today.

Firemen Take Double Header

Sunday afternoon the double header between Cameron and Little River turned out to be a huge battling bee for the Firemen as they won the first game 17 to 2. Then won the second game 11 to 4. The Little River managers had come out in a statement appearing in Friday mornings issue of the Temple Telegram stating that the Firemen would suffer a considerable slump in their batting averages. Just the reverse was true as the Firemen obtained 16 hits in the four innings of the first game and 11 hits in the second game, which went seven innings. It was apparent from the outset that the Cameron Firemen would have no difficulty in winning, and the local boys proceeded to fatten their averages. Unk Young was never in danger and with the Firemen playing errorless ball behind him it would have taken a Texas League team to stop Cameron. Adams started pitching for the visitors but was relieved by Fincher with one out in the third inning. Williams and McDonald had perfect batting averages in the first game, McDonald

CAMERON BOY SELECTED FOR NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Sidney Herndon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Herndon, has just been notified of his selection for membership in the League of Curtis Salesmen, an honor organization maintained by the Curtis Publishing Co., for boys who sell its publications.

Admittance to this organization depends upon regular school attendance and a record of efficient service to customers. Through this training, teachers very generally report that boys gain a sense of responsibility that tends to make schooling more real to them.

As Sidney's friends know he is developing a sense of self-confidence and an ability to make decisions very quickly. That is one reason he is proud to show his badge of membership to his friends and is now looking forward to advancement to the next higher degree in the organization.

Miss Katie Blanch Masters, who taught Spanish in Yoe high school this year left Friday afternoon for a visit in Dallas and will attend the activities of Southern Methodist University while there. She will return later to her home in Lott. Miss Masters has been selected to teach here this fall.

BURLINGTON

Mrs. George Logan

Mrs. Wade Fatheree has been seriously ill for several days with pleurisy.

Mrs. Roy Lindsey has been quite ill but her condition is improving.

The B. Y. P. U. Unions here are planning to attend the B. Y. P. U. Zone Meeting at Walker's Creek on next first Sunday in June.

Dr. J. C. Herring is having erected in Burlington a nice building into which he will move the drug store and post office and the doctors' offices. The building will add to the looks of the town.

Mrs. George Logan has returned from Pike county, Arkansas, where she visited relatives. She reports crops good with the exception of some cut worms working in them. Pike county was one of the hardest hit drouth sections but conditions are improved some as gardens are good and fish plentiful. There is talk of the large saw mills shutting down for a while and of course that will put some folks out of work.

Miss Julia Lansford of Cameron was a recent visitor in the W. K. Johnston home.

You Can't Lose If You Build Now!

Because commodity prices are at a low ebb. Because building costs are the lowest in many years and because they will not always remain as low. They will rise again.

Conditions may not be all we would like but one thing you must take into consideration. Now is the time to begin taking advantage. The money you will save on your building program now will mean much to you in time. It will increase the value of your home just that much and while you have been accustomed of late to put off your home building, please bear in mind it does not take as much money now. Fact is money goes much further and about equalizes values with the old days.

If it is lumber you want we have it. If it is Paint we have it and hundreds of things you need like glass, screen wire and builders hardware. Your dollar hasn't bought as much since 1914.

TWO ARRESTED AFTER
CRASH ON HIGHWAY*SAN MARCOS DOCTOR TREATED
FOR SHOCK AFTER ACCIDENT

Dr. S. B. Slaughter Jr., of San Marcos, was brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Orr in Rockdale shortly after midnight Saturday, suffering from shock, following an automobile crash on the highway two miles the other side of Milano.

Dr. Slaughter, accompanied by his nine year old son, was enroute to Madisonville in East Texas, when his car, a Dodge coupe, crashed with a Chevrolet coupe driven by three men, who, following the crash, disappeared in the darkness. A small amount of liquor, it is said, was found in the Chevrolet, which bore a Milam county number, and Sheriff Blaylock started an investigation Sunday morning. Slaughter was brought to Rockdale by two young men from San Antonio, who were first on the scene after the crash. The injured man was suffering severely from shock and was given attention by Dr. I. P. Sessions, and provided with a nurse until Sunday afternoon, when relatives from Madisonville arrived and conveyed him to his home at San Marcos. The Slaughter boy was uninjured. Both cars were badly damaged.

The two San Antonio men spent the night here and gave such evidence as they had to Sheriff Blaylock. They stated that they were driving toward Milano when the Chevrolet coupe passed them at a high speed, its occupants yelling and the car careening from side to side of the road. The Chevrolet disappeared over a slight hill and they heard the crash as it struck the San Marcos car. When they arrived on the scene the three occupants of the Chevrolet made a hasty get-away on foot, the boys stated.

Monday Sheriff Blaylock arrested John Meadows and Bryant Bullock of Milano. They were charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated and in an examining trial held Tuesday they were bound over to await the action of the grand jury, under bond of $400 each.—Rockdale Reporter.

SUNNY SIDE

In Friday's issue of the Temple Telegram was a statement by the Little River scorer to the effect that I either didn't know a base hit or I was showing partiality toward the Cameron Firemen. Sunday afternoon he went home thoroughly convinced that the Cameron Firemen were the hardest hitting amateur ball club he had ever seen.

McDonald obtained seven hits in 8 trips to the bat which is a mere .875 batting average, while Doug Williams was a close second with 5 hits in six times up for a .833 average.

Cameron has never boasted of such a hitting club, but a look at the fielding averages would give you the impression they are about the 'punkiest' fielding club to be found anywhere. Cameron is prone to play in and out baseball. They are matched with some small town with a supposedly weak team and go into the game with the expectation of it being a 'gift' game but are awakened after the last man is out to find they have lost the game.

Cameron continues to maintain their position in the upper bracket in the cup races. We are anxious to take on the leaders and are trying to get the Temple Cowboys here for next Sunday with possibly Holland for Saturday. Both of these teams are ahead of us in the percentage column but they have not played the number of games we have. While the Firemen are setting the prairies on fire with their hitting as they are now, now is the time to pick the toughest opposition we can find. For this reason we can assure the fans some classy games in the future.

The games which are positively scheduled will be found in another column of this issue.

In Saturday's game with Yarrelton Doug Williams led the hitters by getting a two bagger and two singles in five times up. Mullinax, third baseman for Yarrelton got three hits in three times up. Vogelsang and McDonald and Keith got a hit in three times up.

Tex Miller roamed far and wide in center field and made three put outs.

Yarrelton came on the field some thirty minutes late and as their catcher was missing Vaughn Jenness was drafted to catch on the Yarrelton side.

Worcester was scored on in only the seventh inning when two hits, and a base on balls put over the only two scores they made.

In Sunday's games the Firemen showed to good advantage. In the first game the first man up, Doug Williams, got a three base hit. Keith followed with a double. Then McDonald got a home run. Frok there on out the Firemen dealt the pitchers plenty of misery. McDonald got seven hits in eight times up while Williams got five hits in six times up. The Firemen failed to record Luksa the errorless support they have given Unk Young in the first game, but Luksa kept the game well in hand. When McDonald got two home runs and Vogelsang got one in the first game it established a record for home runs in the Cameron park, at least for several back.

In the Telegram race this makes 3

games won and three lost for a percentage of .727. About the largest crowd of the season witnessed Sunday afternoon games.

Court of Honor At
Yoe High School
Friday for Scouts

A Court of Honor to include Rockdale, Sharpe, Rosebud and Cameron is planned for Friday night, June 5 at the Yoe High School, according to W. G. Gillis, local Court of Honor Chairman.

A very interesting feature, especially interesting to the Cameron Scouts, is the Court of Honor plaque to be presented by the Texas Power and Light Company for the troop having the largest attendance of adults. Tickets are being scattered over town by the troops, each trying to outdo the other. There is no charge for attending the Court of Honor, the tickets being a way of checking up on attendance. You are cordially invited to attend, thereby lending your influence in the work being done by these boys.

The local Scoutmasters of Cameron, J. A. Liddle, John W. Haygood and B. L. Archer will each have Scouts to present at this ceremony for Scout awards.

CAMERON SOCIAL CALENDAR OF 1860 AFFORDED DELIGHTFUL PROGRAMS; "TURNHAM'S SPRING" PICNIC JULY 10

One of the oldest social affairs given in Cameron bears the date of July 10, 1860, was a 'pic-nic excursion' given at the then popular resort known as 'Turnham's Spring.'

Yellow with age and on a pressed embossed invitation paper of rare design, the following invitation was mailed to the social set of that day.

'The pleasure of your company is respectfully solicited to a Pic-nic excursion at Turnham's Spring, on Thursday next, and in the evening of the same day a party, at the Court House. Managers: W. D. King, Wm. H. Tazver, Lee Scott, J. C. Rogers, R. Stennet, John Lampkin, W. D. Jackson, R. S. Wiley, Cameron, Texas, July 10, 1860.'

This antique is in possession of Mrs. Hallie Jones Wofford and was an invitation to Miss Applewhite Harmon, a reigning beauty of the 1860 period who afterward married Dr. D. C. Jones and made their home in Waco for a number of years, and were parents of Mrs. Wofford.

W. D. Jackson later married a Miss Batte and moved to Waco where he for a number of years was a leading photographer. R. S. Wiley lived here and was a practicing physician, and a son of his, Robert S. Wiley, is living here and was for a number of years Tax Assessor of Milam County.

In the early days the town was known for its hospitality and is now known as 'Cameron, the Friendly City.'

Louis Schneider Wins 500 Mile Race

Louis Schneider, Indianapolis youth, with his mechanic, Jigger Johnson, just before and just after he rode to fame and a $20,000 pot of gold in the 500-mile Speedway Classic May 30.

No man has ever won two years consecutively, but Schneider is the twelfth consecutive winner on Firestone Tires, and to express his gratitude for his safety and victory he sent Harvey S. Firestone the following telegram from the track:

"I have just won the five hundred mile Indianapolis race on Six Hundred Twenty Firestone Gum Dipped Tires. It was a most difficult and gruelling test for tires due to a wet, slippery track from frequent showers. Safety at high speed was of greatest importance and my Firestone Tires enabled me to make an average speed of 96.629 miles per hour. I have always used Firestone Tires in all my racing, for I have great confidence in their safety and dependability and I want to thank you for the part Firestone Balloons played in my victory today, for I had no tire failures and changed but one tire, purely a precautionary measure, and all my tires were in fine condition at the finish of the race."

termingled with greenery presented an attractive combination in baskets, vases and containers, placed on the lawn giving added beauty to the already pretty scene.

Mesdames Oxsheer Smith and Giles Avriett tied in high score and low fell to Mrs. R. P. Jeter, all receiving pretty gift shop articles.

The hostess regaled her guests with a frozen salad course with ice tea served on handsome bamboo trays, centered with miniature corages of pink sweet peas, given as plate favors.

MRS. CLAUDE TRIGGS WITH BRIDGE CLUB

An artistic arrangement of pink roses, larkspur and ferns lent floral charm to the home of Mrs. Claude Triggs Friday afternoon when she entertained her bridge club. The same attractive color theme was noted in all appointments.

Three tables were arranged for an interesting series of games. At the conclusion awards went to Miss Catherine Flinn for highest score, a bridge set; second highest was captured by Mrs. Stanton Dossett, bath salts. During the games ginger ale was served and at the conclusion the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Stanton Dossett served an ice course.

Guests other than club members were Misses Helen and Catherine Flinn.

Old Receipt Cameron Sentinel Subscription

J. Alex Martin of Tulsa brought to The Herald office this week an old receipt issued to his father, Dr. Ed A. Martin and signed by J. A. Moore for a subscription paid to the Cameron Sentinel on April 15, 1861.

The Sentinel was Cameron's pioneer newspaper. The Herald would like to have information from older residents here as to whether The Herald was a continuation of that publication or a separate newspaper. As carried now The Herald was established in 1878. It is possible that the old Sentinel was discontinued and The Herald named in its place. In that event this newspaper would be 70 years old. Any information will be appreciated.

Conference of Young People At Jacksonville

groups of happy, because healthy, 100 per cent children.

We trust that all of you who are interested, understand that of Health Meet coming so late in the school year, made it impossible to do more than touch the big job of school visiting, and we can only be thankful that we have had this sample of what health work should be.

The County Health Council following the plan of the state department of Health, ministers to all the people irrespective of race, color, creed and works for better health for all thru better health instruction for all.

The splendid work done for our negro population is here outlined:

The Milam County Health program which was conducted by Miss Adaline Robinson of the State Department of Health was concluded at Baileyville on Friday, May 5.

During this month's work 17 schools were visited, 29 adult and 15 boys conferences were held. One junior health class totaling 40 girls and one adult health class totaling 29 was conducted, a total of 52 certificates issued by the Department of Health were given to the finishing members of these two classes. Eight home visits were made.

A total of 1010 school and 275 preschool children were inspected, finding 260 of them underweight and 3205 with major defects. 1175 adults attended the various meetings and conferences. Making a total of 2562 juniors and adults at all meetings.

Twenty-six teachers, 2 nurses, 2 doctors, 6 preachers, 1 County Agent, 1 Jeans Supervisor and numerous club boys and girls gave major assistance in accomplishing the foregoing results. Miss M. E. B. Miller, Jeans supervisor; B. R. Williams, R. N., wife of County Agent J. H. Williams, assisted in every meeting during the campaign.

No doubt the success of this campaign would have been impossible had it not been for the leadership and wonderful cooperation of J. H. Williams, Negro County Agricultural Agent who directed this campaign from the beginning. Large attendance at these various meetings was due to the publicity he gave to the work and the confidence of rural people have in him as a result of his untiring progressive work among them.

We think this month's work has been far reaching enough to start the change toward better living conditions among negroes in this county.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of extending our thanks and appreciation for the assistance and kind deeds of our neighbors and friends during the illness and death of Mrs. Mary E. Martin. We will remember always your sympathy and words of comfort in our hours of great bereavement. We thank those who gave flowers and all those who assisted us in any way.

FORMER GENERAL MANAGER
ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT
TEXAS-LOUISIANA CO.

R. L. Bowen, well known in this city, has been elected Vice President and Director of the Texas-Louisiana Power Company, according to an announcement received by W. J. Watson, local manager.

Mr. Bowen, who is a native of Van Alstyne, Texas, has been with the Company since its inception in 1922, having started work in the capacity of line walker at Graham, Texas, when a very young man.

By successive steps, he was promoted to field superintendent, chief engineer, and Western Division Manager, with offices in El Paso. In 1929, he was brought to the General Offices of the Company in Ft. Worth as General Manager and his subsequent record of accomplishment resulted in his election to the Vice Presidency and Directorship of this $30,000,000 public utility system.

Mr. Bowen's first schooling was received in the public schools at Van Alstyne and later, he attended Terrill School for Boys at Dallas. His college education was received in Blue Mountain, Mississippi, where he was a student in Mississippi College.

He joined the Pecking Expedition to Mexico in 1916. The day following his mustering out of the National Guard Service, the United States declared war on Germany and Mr. Bowen enlisted immediately, leaving within a few months for France where he served almost two years in active service during the World War.

In 1919, he returned to the States and was married in August of that year to Miss Bertha Booth of Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen made their home in San Antonio where Mr. Bowen engaged in real estate work for several months before joining the forces of A. P. Barrett who was then organizing several small companies which were to become the nucleus of the Texas-Louisiana Power Company. Mrs. Bowen was also associated with the company in its early days.

Mr. Bowen, being a native of the Southwest, has always had a deep interest in this section and has made important contributions to its development.

ADDITIONAL MAIL ROUTE WILL BE GIVEN CAMERON

Co-Operation Needed In House Numbering Job Here

Co-operation is necessary for the Commercial Club Committee charged with the work of getting numbers on Cameron houses.

It was reported to the club Monday night by Chairman August Horstmann that some misunderstanding has resulted and in some instances improper cooperation is the experience of the workers.

Owners of tenant houses should pay the small fee necessary and thus help the work along and others should cooperate.

It means that another mail route will be added to the free delivery service for the city and it means the employment of another man who can support a family and will bring this additional amount to the Cameron's annual pay roll.

Rodent extermination was discussed by Mr. Banzhaf who has had an offer from A. & M. Extension Department to send a man here on request of ten merchants.

Difficulty is being had with the right of way for Highway 44. President Avriett of the club said that no progress had been made and the Commissioners Court had not been able to agree on the purchase of the land. The price fixed by appraisers will not be paid by the Court unless the Highway Department will agree to construct an all weather bridge and trestle across Big Elm.

The Club authorized a committee to appear before the City Council to discuss the band tax. The club takes the position it should be expended for the purpose for which it was voted by the people or refunded to the tax payers by non-levy. At this time many people want a band here.

Good Response To Public Health Work

Milam County Health Council has been most gratified that the health nurses have found such interested cooperation in all parts of the county.

As the State Department could lend us these nurses for so short a time, efforts have been made to reach as many communities of the county as possible.

Where Home Demonstration Clubs could combine a conference with Miss Nickerson has been substituted for the regular meeting; this was done through the cooperation of Miss Bartholomew and her club members.

The best results of school health examinations are of course to be obtained by the children in following the nurses' suggestions, thus insuring future health.

Full reports of the nurses' work will be given in next week's papers.

L. W. CONE FOUND SHOT THROUGH HEART AT MINERVA

Despondency Is Given By Neighbors As Cause

L. W. Cone, 53, was found dead at his home in Minerva on Saturday night, May 23, 1931.

Beside the body was a shot gun. He had been shot through the heart and death is said to have been instant.

An inquest was held by the Justice of Peace and a verdict of suicide rendered. Despondency is said to have been the reason for his act, assigned by neighbors who were close to him. For many years Mr. Cone had been employed by W. H. Fletcher in the mercantile store in Minerva and he was well known over this section.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, May 24, 1931 at 2:30 o'clock at the home near Minerva. Rev. Cravens, pastor of the Methodist church at Rockdale conducted the services. Interment was made in the family burying grounds near Minerva with Green Brothers in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, belonged to an old pioneer family of Milam county, was well and favorably known throughout the county by a large circle of friends. No reason has been found for the act except that he was despondent.

Deceased is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son, and a number of brothers and sisters.

Pall bearers were Grover Lucas, John Gore, Harry Moody, W. H. Fletcher, Raymond Dees and Tom Evard.

MUNICIPAL BAND FOR CAMERON IS SOUGHT

FORT STOCKTON DIRECTOR
HERE IN RESPONSE TO
CAMERON REQUESTS

Francis Cox of Fort Stockton was a visitor here this week for the purpose of organizing a municipal band. He came here on the request of people of Cameron. Enthusiasm for a municipal band has been high for some time and in conjunction with the visits here by Mr. Cox, the matter was discussed at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night. A committee was named to go before the City Council to ask for an appropriation to be used for a band master.

Mr. Cox is an experienced musician and band director. Last year he headed the trombone department of the faculty of the Southwestern Band Conservatory at Dallas during the 6 weeks summer term. He will again serve in that capacity this summer in the event he does not locate in Cameron.

For the past two years he has directed the Fort Stockton Municipal School and Cowboy Bands. Although members of the Cowboy Band did not play instruments two years ago, the thirty piece band is playing high class concert music today. The program conducted there by Mr. Cox was sponsored by the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, City Council and Schools.

Mr. Cox was reared in Belton and when a youth, directed the Senior High, Grammar School and Chamber of Commerce Concert Bands for a period of three years. His father, Lewis Cox, has directed band work there for over 35 years and is still active in musical work.

While directing band work in Belton, the high school band was honored by being the first to play for the Governor of Texas in 1925. The performance was given on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion. While in Austin at that time, the band played for the student body of the University of Texas at the special request of L. H. Hubbard, then Dean of Men.

Mr. Cox was formerly connected with the Municipal Band of Waco and for the past number of years during vacation time has played with the Temple Elks and Belton White Horse Bands.

Mr. Cox will hold a meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the banquet hall of the Blue Bonnet Cafe and all who are interested in a band for Cameron are asked to be present.

Firemen Win in Double Header

The double header Sunday afternoon was won by Cameron 3 to 2 and 10 to 2. Rogers sent Guess in against the Firemen but that gentleman fared ill against Uek Young.

Young assumed the role of 'Iron Man McGinnity' and pitched his mates to the two victories over Rogers. In the first game of seven innings he let the visitors down with six hits and was much stronger in the second as he gave only three hits.

This double defeat of Rogers put the Firemen back near the top in both the Temple and Waco races.

Guess was called upon in the second game to relieve Widener, who found himself wild and very much in trouble in the first inning of the second game. Enough runs were made off of Widener to win the game before he was yanked.

OUR PRESIDENT Wrote this Advertisement

AS STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM, I am sometimes asked why we advertise. This question has never been asked by the great majority of people who have learned to depend upon advertising as a source of news and information. But in order that our customers and the general public will know specifically why we advertise, I shall briefly give the four principal reasons. They are:

1
To tell our customers and the general public about the company itself, its policies, its methods of doing business, the men and women who work for it, and its plans for development.

2
To gain public co-operation by directing attention to that which will encourage thrift, to promote safety, to build up industrial enterprises, and to make this community a better place in which to live.

3
To sell the service of the company and to keep our customers advised of the facilities that make this service possible. To assist our customers in saving gas and reducing their gas bills. To sell our fuel in competition with other fuels.

4
To give us a means of expression when misunderstood and unjustly attacked.

We use, principally, newspaper advertising because it has proven to be the most efficient and economical way to reach all of our customers, and the greatest majority of the general public. An advertisement in the newspapers actually costs less than it would to mail the same information to each of our customers by letter. Advertising is the voice of your gas company.

Ben Arnold Wins Game Saturday

Cameron virtually handed Ben Arnold a ball game Saturday afternoon when Ben Arnold walked off with a four to three victory over the Firemen.

The game was within their grasp several times but the Firemen seemed to play the variety of ball that these games are theirs for the asking and not for the playing.

Ben Arnold was playing to win the ball game and this they did.

Luksa turned over the pitching assignment to Worcester in the first of the ninth with the score three to two. Worcester found himself in trouble from the start. The visitors tied the score in the ninth and won out in the eleventh on three hits and a hit batsman.

The Firemen were unable to solve the offerings of W. Reimer, who relieved J. Reimer in the eighth.

All the umpires came in for panings.

I have been in the practice for 20 years and think I know my business.

Call and see me for Examinations, Estimates, Etc.

Yesterday

the small isolated power plant was fairly capable of serving the simple needs for electric service. The uses of electricity were few. It had not then assumed the importance in daily life which it now holds.

To day

the isolated power plant is not capable of meeting the modern demand for electric service. Great generating stations produce electric power which is transmitted over high tension power lines for many miles, thus making possible metropolitan electric service in the smallest towns. The Texas Power & Light Company pioneered this type of electric power in Texas and is now its leading producer.

the PURPOSE of the Texas Power & Light Company as a Texas Institution

The Texas Power & Light Company was established sixteen years ago for the purpose of rendering electric service to Texas cities and towns.

It was evident, even sixteen years ago, that isolated power plants would not be able to supply the rapidly multiplying needs of Texas people for electric service.

After long study and experiment the engineers of the Texas Power & Light Company, together with other leading electrical engineers throughout the world, found that electric energy could be transmitted over high tension power lines for great distances from large generating stations, thus making possible a metropolitan type of electric service for smaller communities.

From that day until this it has been the purpose of this Company to render an electric service adequate to the needs of Texas people, in order that any user in any community served could at any time of the day or night, press an electric button and receive instant, dependable electric service at a reasonable cost.

Revolutionary changes have been made in the methods of generating and distributing electric power. Changes are rapid, so rapid, even now, that equipment which is the last word today will be obsolete tomorrow. Electric service has become so inseparably a part of our daily life that it would be impossible for us to move through a day without its aid. The tremendous burden of responsibility which is thus thrown upon the Texas Power & Light Company is borne with true American efficiency.

Through all the changes within its own industry, through poor years and good, through prosperity and depression, into this present era of stabilized and sound development, the Texas Power & Light Company has held unwaveringly to its great purpose. As a result those Texas cities and towns served by this Company have unrivalled electric service.

GARY COOPER IN 'CITY STREETS' AT THE MILAM

HERE SUNDAY

Enacted by a superb cast of screen players, headed by Gary Cooper and Sylvia Sydney, the amazing drama of underworld racketeering 'City Streets' will come to life on the Milam Theatre screen Sunday.

Dashiell Hammett's realistic story, dramatized from the actual experiences of this former Pinkerton sleuth is a startling expose of conditions as they exist in the law scoffing underworld of the great cities. Hammett's stories, appearing in many of the more popular magazines during the past couple of years, have stirred public interest everywhere, and his first moving picture story, 'City Streets,' makes all the realism of his sinister backgrounds live on the screen.

Cooper, a young shooting-gallery operator with a street carnival, becomes involved in the feuds of two powerful beer-running barons when his sweetheart, Sylvia Sydney, is framed and convicted for a murder she did not commit. Although he had resisted the lure of the easy money until forced into the unlawful intrigues of the racketeers, Cooper takes advantage of his ability with firearms, and wins the respect and admiration of his new co-workers. In a smashing climax, Cooper turns against his enemies, beats them at their own game, and escapes to safety with the girl.

A splendid cast supports the two stars. Paul Lukas, the suave hero of the recent Ruth Chatterton dramas, 'Anybody's Woman,' 'Right to Love,' and 'Unfaithful,' and William Boyd, who opposed Cooper in the smashing fight of 'The Spiders,' depict gangster types in actionful portrayals. Guy Kibbee, a veteran stage character comedian, seen recently in William Powell's 'Man of the World,' has another big role in 'City Streets.' Wyne Gibson, the interesting 'other woman' of 'Man of the World,' who displayed such versatility in Jack Oakie's two comedy hits, 'The Gang Buster' and 'June Moon,' gives further evidence of her acting powers here.

'City Streets' was directed by Rouben Mamoulian, whose impressionistic filming of 'Applause' caused nationwide comment. His quick-moving scenes, his weird contrast of lights and shadows adds to the tenseness of this drama and the breath-taking suspense of its plot. 'City Streets' has everything that makes for rousing, thrilling entertainment in a modern setting.

Son-in-Law Shot

county officials following the shooting. He is being held in the Lee county jail at Giddings.

It is understood the father became angered when his daughter, Edith, took refuge in the Hughes' home after she was threatened with a thrashing for going to a dance the night before. The father went to the home of his son in law after the girl but she refused to go with him.

Hughes and his small son were in the yard when Fisher started to leave.

Fisher was said to have asked his son in law to send the girl home immediately and Hughes told him that he would not interfere with their affairs.

It is said that Fisher then went to his automobile which was parked near the house and got a shotgun.

Authorities stated that over two hundred shots penetrated Hughes' back from his shoulders to his hips and right arm.

Following the tragedy Fisher got into his car and drove away, soon afterwards surrendering to Deputy Sheriff Charles Reed at Blue Branch. Bond for Fisher was fixed at $1,000.—Taylor Press.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS

On the day, October 12th, in 1492 he found America.

He had sailed west from Spain telling the Queen he was going to hunt a new passage to the Indies. But what he was really hunting was parking space and a reliable place to buy a pair of Goodyears.

And if he'd been able to hold out a little longer and travel a little farther, he'd have found both, right here.

Seventh Grade News

EDITED BY STUDENTS

'Courtship of Miles Standish' was read and enjoyed by the pupils of 7C for reading. Character sketches of the three characters were written and the following were chosen for the paper. The first paragraph is an imaginary one.

Priscilla

Priscilla was the loveliest maiden of Plymouth. She wore a large blue dress with a white cap and apron. She wore small black shoes with small buckles.

Priscilla was modest, simple and sweet; she was sometimes called 'the May-flower of Plymouth.' Priscilla was very beautiful and rich with the wealth of her being. She was delicate but did her work as any strong maiden would have done.

She had a kind heart and loved to do things to help other people. During the bad winter at Plymouth she nursed the people and did what she could to help other people and those who were sick. Priscilla loved God and read and sang psalms out of the Bible. She was easily alarmed and shocked at first. Priscilla was nearly always happy and rejoiced with others when she felt like it was time. When Priscilla married John, she was happy and gay because she loved him dearly.

—Hilliard Thomas.

Priscilla

The loveliest maiden of Plymouth, Priscilla, was dressed in a modest brown dress of home spun, with a white cap perched upon her head. Soft leather shoes with silver buckles, a Puritan maiden's cap and a cape and hood completed her costume.

Modest and simple and sweet was Priscilla, the Puritan maiden, even as were the May-flowers which Alden brought to her. Delicate was she, with fair skin and blue eyes which looked as if they were bits of Heaven. Beautiful as a flower she seemed and was rich with the wealth of her being.

Kind at heart was she, modest and patient. During the long, hard winter at Plymouth she tended the sick patiently, carefully, tenderly. She was true to her religion and although it seemed as though the severe climate of her new home was unbearable, she remained true, though she longed for her home in old England. Her statement, 'Why don't you speak for yourself, John?' has echoed down through history as the statement of a great and courageous woman. For many a year Plymouth was brightened by her presence.

—Margaret Fisher.

John Alden

John Alden was dressed as all men were in those days. He had on velvet trousers which went to the knee and buckled. His stockings which he had on were made of cotton and he wore shoes which had buckles on them.

John Alden was a fair-haired, azure-eyed, youth with delicate Saxon complexion. He had the dew of youth, and the beauty thereof, as the captives whom Saint Gregory saw, and exclaimed, 'Not angels, but angels.' Alden was the youngest of all the men on the Mayflower. He was an elegant scholar and a great writer.

Alden was cheerful and he was happy when writing. When anyone was speaking to him he was courteous and attentive. John Alden always tried to keep his temper and when he was downhearted he tried not to show it. Alden thought friendship was as sacred as anything else. Alden had a great will power. When Alden was going to Priscilla for Miles Standish, he prayed that he might be successful.

—Garland Button.

John Alden

John Alden was dressed in short, black pants with white stockings. He wore black shoes with a large silver buckle on each of them. Alden wore a black coat and a white shirt with a stiff collar. On his head he wore a three pointed hat.

John Alden was a fair-haired, azure-eyed youth with a delicate Saxon complexion. He was quiet and when overjoyed he would become awkward and dumb with delight.

John Alden was a diligent scribe and while working he was very light-hearted. John Alden's friendship toward Miles Standish made him do almost everything Standish required of him. When Standish asked Alden to go to Priscilla and tell her of his love for her, Alden smiled and went on the errand although he hated to do it. Alden had a flowery speech of language and he tried to make himself agreeable and pleasant wherever he went.

—Harold Jackson.

Miles Standish

Miles Standish was dressed in a tight fitting coat and hose, wearing boots of Cordovan leather. When dressed for war Miles Standish wore his trusty blade of Damascus.

Miles Standish was a short man, but strongly built with broad shoulders, a deep chest and muscles of iron. He was old and rough with a sunburnt face and he had a brown beard with a few patches of white. When marching to war Standish would be silent and moody.

Miles Standish was a brave man with a very high temper. He would lead his army through the thickest of the fighting and would never turn back. Miles Standish would rather do something himself than to trust it to someone else. His motto was, 'If you have it done well, you must do it yourself, you must not leave it to others!' Standish was patient and would wait for an answer. He had a good memory and would like to tell stories about himself and his ancestors. Standish liked to read about Caesar and the battles he fought.

—Harold Jackson.

Street Car Co.,
320 Street,
Cameron, Texas,

Dear Sirs:

As you know I have been living in Cameron for twelve years. The street car is just one block from my house, but when it is rainy I have to walk in the mud for there is no sidewalk. If it is not asking too much of the company I wish you could put the car line in front of our house.

Respectfully,
Roy Heath.

Cameron, Texas, May 6, 1931.

The Road Co.,
North Crockett Street
Cameron, Texas,

Dear Sir:

I would appreciate it very much if you would fix the mud hole in front of our house. No one can come inside of the house unless they get their feet muddy. It also makes the place look bad all around. If you would please fix it, we would surely like it better.

Very truly yours,
Woodrow Good

We thank you in advance and will depend on your hearty cooperation.

The following articles are word pictures painted by the students of the Seventh Grade English classes.

Description of Sir Launfal

Sir Launfal wore an armor which was unscarred. He was young, strong, and graceful; and rode a charger which was young and powerful. When he first came out of the old castle, he stood out in the dark like the image of morning.

Sir Launfal rode out of the castle and saw a leper who was begging, so Sir Launfal pitched him a piece of gold in scorn. That night he thought of the leper and the next time he saw some one that needed help, he helped them. He saw the leper again and this time it was winter, so he broke the ice off the water and gave the leper something to eat and drink. When he reached home he saw the leper as the image of God and that told him he had found the Holy Grail.

—Trent Newton.

A Child With A New Toy

A small golden-haired child is sitting in front of a large fireplace. He is playing with a new flashlight. A look of happiness is on his face and a newly emptied Christmas stocking is hanging on the fireplace. A lighted Christmas tree is in one corner and toys are on the floor around it.

—John Martin.

An Organ Grinder

A sleepy organ grinder with an unshaven face and a huge moustache is standing in the corner with his monkey perched on his shoulder. His monkey chatters and rattles his cup while the sleepy old organ grinder sings 'O Sole Mio,' in a peculiar baritone voice.

First Grade Children Going Home

Six, gay, young children left the large brick school house on their way to their happy homes. They stopped on their way home and picked some large, beautiful, blue pansies and took them to their happy mothers.

—Harold Jackson.

An Organ Grinder

He was an Italian with a long black mustache that curled around. He loved to watch the merry children play as he played the organ. The old Italian loved his comical monkey which danced as he played the worn organ.

—Leonard Blaylock.

The Organ Grinder

The old Italian organ-grinder is coming down the street with his organ and monkey. His hair is black greasy and long and curling whiskers. He wears green velvet pants and a bright red jacket and a little brown felt hat.

—Ralph McLerran.

A Fruit Vendor

The fruit vendor is a very comical fellow with his push cart loaded with fruits of all kinds. Now and then one hears him calling, 'Fruits for sale, fresh fruits for sale.' He is very neat and clean in appearance, for he cannot afford to be unclean and sell his fruits and expect them to be in a sanitary condition.

—Wenonah Slaughter.

A Child With A New Toy

The child sat quietly on the floor playing with a beautiful, new toy. On its face was a look of complete happiness and contentment.

—Nancy Newton.

A Fruit Vendor

The fruit vendor is a very funny old fellow. He goes around the street crying out, 'Fresh fruit! Fresh fruit!' He is an Italian with brown hair and black eyes and a short black moustache. His cart is new. On it he has an abundant supply of fruits of all kinds.

—Jack Moore.

A Child With A New Toy

She is sitting on the hearth in a small, bare room of a hut. The child has a doll in her hand. The fire in the fireplace lights the small room and lights the child's face. She is in rags.

—Gale Campbell.

An Organ Grinder

The organ grinder steps merrily down the street, his organ merrily squealing, coughing and puffing out a tune. He is a comical Italian with broad gold ringlets in his ears. His curly black hair shields a funny monkey from the sun. His clothes are tattered but still they show, through the dirt, traces of once bright colors. Around his neck he wears a bright yellow handkerchief which covers his organ when it rains. He is a jolly old fellow, eager to 'please the children' and coppers clink into the cup which the grave little monkey holds.

—Margaret Fisher.

A Fruit Vendor

The fruit vendor is a funny fellow. He goes up and down the streets calling 'Bananas, bananas, fresh bananas!' He is old and grey. Bananas are carried in an old worn out wagon with a canvas top. The cart is drawn by an old grey donkey. On the front of the wagon is a poster in queer letters which read, 'Bananas, ten cents a dozen.'

—Ray Fanning.

GAS UTILITIES ARE NEWSPAPER ADVERTISERS

L. B. DENNING OF DALLAS, PRESIDENT TELLS WHY NEWSPAPERS ARE USED

Why do the gas utilities advertise? This question is frequently asked by people who believe that gas utilities are monopolies, and sometimes the question contains a note of criticism.

The Lone Star Gas Company and its affiliated companies are publishing an advertisement over the signature of L. B. Denning, of Dallas, president, explaining why his companies use newspaper advertising. Newspaper advertising represents 74 per cent of the total advertising expenditure of representative natural gas companies of the country last year. The companies in the Lone Star group show a much higher percentage than the average, as they used about 98 per cent of their advertising expenditures in the daily and weekly newspapers of their territory, Mr. Denning said.

The advertisement gives the following four principal reasons why the gas companies advertise in the newspapers: To tell their customers and the general public about the company, its policies, its methods of doing business, the men and women who work for it, and its plans for development; to promote public cooperation by directing attention to that which will encourage thrift, to promote safety, to build up industrial enterprises, and to make the community a better place in which to live; to sell the service of the company and to keep its customers advised of the facilities that make this service possible, to assist its customers in saving gas and reducing their gas bills, to sell its fuel in competition with other fuels; to give it a means of expression when misunderstood and unjustly attacked.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Have you attended the Christian Church Revival? Hear Dr. John W. Darby, the world's only endowed evangelist each evening at 7:45.

Subjects he will discuss: Sunday—'Financing the Kingdom. Monday—'Victories of Faith.'

Tuesday—'The Immediate State of the Dead.' This sermon answers the questions, 'Where do the dead go?' Are they conscious? Do they know us? Will we know them? Dr. Darby has never had a building large enough to hold the audience for this sermon.

Wednesday—'The Tragedy of a Soul.'

Thursday—'The Great Salvation.'

Friday—'What Lack I Yet?'

This is Cameron's opportunity to hear some really great messages delivered in a statesmanlike manner. No sensationalism, no fanaticism. Just a statesmanlike presentation of the claims of religion on the life of any community.

Have you ever faced the question of Eternity? Come and hear these great messages.

Let's have a SHOWDOWN on this matter of TIRE Comparisons

WITH all the conflicting claims published about tires, it is obvious that misleading statements are being made. The only conclusion that you as a tire buyer can draw is that either we, as Firestone Dealers, are misrepresenting Firestone products, or that a certain mail order house is not telling the truth about theirs. Both can't be right—one or the other is misleading the public by their comparisons.

Firestone, in their advertising, only make comparisons that can be easily verified by the customer before buying tires. To attempt to substantiate the comparisons made by this mail order house, it would be necessary to go into a laboratory and employ experts.

The very reason that the comparisons made in Firestone advertising enable you to get the facts yourself, makes it unnecessary for Mr. Firestone to make affidavit on the truth of his statements or to file any complaint with the Federal Trade Commission, and then advertise it, in an attempt to lead the public to believe his statements were true.

Mr. Firestone doesn't ask you to accept comparisons about Firestone Tires and special brand mail order tires until you see the facts yourself. Neither do we. All we ask is that you make your own comparison.

We have cross-sections cut from special brand mail order tires purchased from stocks of mail order house and from Firestone Tires—no "tricky" or misleading comparisons—come in today and make your own comparisons for Quality, Construction, and Prices. YOU and YOU ALONE be the judge!

LUNCHEON

A charming function on last Friday's calendar was Mrs. Leland Green's luncheon arranged to honor Miss Fannie Lou Davis whose marriage to John Henderson will be an event of June 10. The affair was held at her home on East 13th Street.

Pink was the chosen color which was carried out in an attractive manner by the using of various colors of pink sweet peas, which were placed in bowls and vases and graced the center of the dining table which was laid with a pink luncheon set. Tall pink tapers in crystal holders shed a pretty glow over the scene where a two course menu was served.

Guests found their places around the board in a unique manner by rhymes that described some article on the table. Much merriment was afforded by this. After lunch all were given tea towels to them with the privilege of adding some attractive design in the corners, which taxed the genius of some of the guests.

At the completion of the towels four were decided the most novel and in the cut, Miss Lucille Dickard received a measuring cup which she presented to the honoree. A flower contest was part of the diversion and much enjoyed, and later each guest was asked to write a recipe in a pretty hand painted book which was presented to the bride to be.

Only close friends of the bride were invited to this delightful affair.

Skit—Amos and Andy, Charles Beacham and Olin Modessett. Signing off, James Depew.

The menu carried out the novel idea of radio broadcasting as follows:

First course, fruit cocktail (static.) Second course, fried chicken, snowflake potatoes, English peas, (hook-up.)

Third course, olives and sliced pickles (interference.)

Fourth course, ice cream and angel food cake (aerial.)

Fifth course, iced tea (condenser.) At the close of the banquet the classes enjoyed a dance at the Country Club. The same color scheme was used in the decorations of the club rooms as at the banquet hall. Mother sponsors of the classes were Mesdames W. E.
